Preface<sup>6</sup> and the Ancestry of James Sanders

While turning the pages of Savage's interesting "Hundred of Carhampton"<sup>7</sup> in Somersetshire, I came across certain records of one William Siderfin<sup>8</sup>.

My mother having been a Siderfin<sup>9</sup>, my attention was at once aroused, and I resolved to pursue the study of the annales of the family to which [s]he belonged. My main reason was the natural interest one must feel in his ancestors, their occupations, their services to the State or to society, their habits and manners, their prosperity or adversity. The pursuit of this subject became fascinating, and furnished a welcome relief from the routine duties and commercial engagements of a busy life.

James Sanders' mother was Elizabeth Siderfin married to James Hooper Sanders. Elizabeth was born 1817<sup>10</sup> daughter (and eldest child) of Robert Siderfin of Watchet and his wife Sarah Parsons. Elizabeth Siderfin daughter of Robert Siderfin (Saddler; Watchet, Somerset) and his wife Sarah Parsons was baptized 16 Oct 1817 at St Decuman's Parish

Available at: <https://archive.org/details/historyofsiderfi00sand>.

<sup>8</sup> In this instance I believe that James Sanders is referring to William Sidervin married to Wilmot Foster; generally he spelled the name as it was spelled in the records William Sidervin

<sup>9</sup> Elizabeth Siderfin, daughter of Robert Siderfin and Sarah Parsons. Robert was the son of John Siderfin and Sarah Clark. John was the son of Robert Siderfin and Grace Kent. This Robert was the son of Augustine Siderfin and Mary Davies and Augustine was in the seventh generation (Figure 1) coming down from the first generation on James Sanders' Chart (Figure 2)

<sup>10</sup> The generational chart in Figure 1 for the family of Elizabeth Siderfin wife of James Hooper Sanders places the grandfather of Elizabeth in the middle of the chart but it is implied that this line comes down from John Siderfin and Joan Greenslade. In reality there is one child missing from the family of John Siderfin and Joan Greenslade, namely John Siderfin (baptized 24 Jan 1760 at Cutcombe) who later married Joan Adams 28 Mar 1785 at Cutcombe where all the baptisms and marriages for the children of John Siderfin and Joan Greenslade took place. This is clarified by the will of the grandfather of Elizabeth Siderfin (married to James Sanders) namely John Siderfin whose original will (dated 1 Feb 1814) was destroyed in the bombing of the Exeter Record Office during the Second World War however James Sanders had fortunately made a transcript and it is possible that he also had a copy of the will in the records which he left at the Devon Record Office not seen by myself (Elizabeth Kipp). The Abstract reads: 1814: John Siderfin, of Selworthy. Will dated 1st February, 1814. Gives all his lands to Sarah his wife for life then to his son Robert Siderfin subject to legacies, John Siderfin and Elizabeth wife of William Clarke, of East Lynch. Wife sole executrix. Witness John Clark, William Kingdon, Elizabeth. Kingdon. This does provide proof of the generations (by location) down to Robert's granddaughter Elizabeth. Add to this the will of the mother of John Siderfin, of Selworthy, and again only a transcript exists to my knowledge (also made by James Sanders): 1799. Grace Siderfin, of Knowle, Selworthy, widow. Will dated 13th December, 1773. Mentions son John, daughters Mary Potter, Betty Rewe, Grace Langdon, Joanna Siderfin. Son Robert and Joanna executors.

baptized 14 Jan 1721/22 at Cutcombe<sup>19</sup> and Robert Siderfin baptized 23 Jun 1726 at Cutcombe<sup>20, 21, 22</sup>

<sup>23</sup>I have thought it desirable to put into a permanent form, through the printing press, the result of these researches, believing that this record may prove entertaining to those who may trace any connection, either by descent in the direct line or by the alliance of marriage, with the family of Siderfin.

Moreover, the students of archaeology and local history who know the district of West Somerset may be prepared to accept the humble contribution of a novice in their craft to their gathered store of information.

No pretensions to literary merit are made by the writer, and criticism should be disarmed by this admission on the part of one whose motto is “Deeds, not words.”

The ancestral home of the Siderfin family cannot be determined, but Luxborough seems to provide the chief material for this memorial, in the form of parish registers, etc. in the early days; Selworthy; Wootton Courtney and Minehead in the later period.

Acknowledgements

I wish to acknowledge the work done by James Sanders, JP, with regard to the publication of his book “The Siderfin Family of West Somerset.” Without his diligent work in gathering together the material, the process of producing this book would not likely have happened. My mother (Helen Louise Pincombe) remembered a lot of her family history but the surname of this one of her 2x great grandmothers was not known or forgotten by my mother when I knew her.

I also wish to acknowledge the assistance of Auriol Carney, a descendant of Thomas Siderfin, brother to my Elizabeth Siderfin, for her recording of the Thomas’ family line (youngest son of Robert Siderfin and Grace Kent).

Likely it was the death of my mother’s father (John Routledge Pincombe) when she was just eight years old that resulted in the loss of some information. Whilst searching for information on Elizabeth Rew (married to John Pincombe and, as I discovered, daughter of Elizabeth (Siderfin) Rew), I found the will of John Rew (written at Bishops Nympton where he died) in which he mentioned his daughter Elizabeth Pincombe otherwise I would not have discovered so much about her in a timely fashion. Elizabeth (Betty) Siderfin had been born likely at Wootton Courtney in Somersetshire and the daughter of Robert Siderfin and his wife Grace Kent. Her daughter Elizabeth Rew was also born and baptized in this same area in Somersetshire so was quite distant from her home area when she married John Pincombe at Bishops Nympton, Devon.

For myself, delving into the Siderfin family has been a most fascinating journey never realizing that it would lead me to several possible Huguenot ancestors because of the work being done by the Time Team (led by producer Tim Taylor) and in this case in the Dunster, Somersetshire area<sup>28</sup>. Dunster was the home of the Question family and Elizabeth Question had married Robert Siderfin. Their nine children including Augustine Siderfin (my 5x great grandfather) and his son Robert who was the father of Elizabeth my last Siderfin ancestor mentioned above were all born in the Selworthy/Wootton Courtney area of Somersetshire.

I have added in the known descent (at this time of writing) of my 6th x great grandfather Robert Siderfin down to myself (Elizabeth Elaine (Blake) Kipp) as Figure 3. As I work my way through all of the information I propose<sup>29</sup> to take this back further but the evidence to do so I have not looked at for quite a while. It could be that I would be able to now do so in a meaningful way with records.

For the most part I have indicated original text in the footnotes from the text of James Sanders and retyped by me and where there is a change I have so noted and my reason for doing so.

Thank you to my daughter Margaret for her assistance and encouragement but especially with the creative commons licencing.

The Translation<sup>35</sup>

- (II) “Hundred Rolls”, Somerset, Vol. II., page 127, the 4th year of E[dward]. I. (A.D., 1275-6) – The Free Manor of Brigford (Brushford).

The jurors say that the lords of free manors have a gallows (the power to inflict capital punishment) and the assize of bread and ale but they do not know by what warrant. And with respect to sheriffs taking payments they say that Richard de Meyesmor took for rent<sup>36</sup> from the men of John de Repariis (Rivers), namely from Sampsan de Hasle, John Brum, Robert de Sidernefenne, William Binoptheweye, etc.

- (III) I cannot make out exactly what Sidernefenne meant. Perhaps it meant altogether “the side of the herne or corner of the valley by the fen or swamp.” In Kelly’s Directory of Somersetshire for the year 1875<sup>37</sup> a farm called Venn Southern Venn<sup>38</sup> or Fen is referred to in Brushford parish. Binoptheweye evidently means William who lived “by no pathway,” Brushford was then, I think, within the metes and bounds of Exmoor Forest; but there were freemen who paid a hundred shillings quit rent – a large sum of money in those days. Repariis was, I believe, another form of spelling for Redvers.

After this I find no trace of this family, they may have migrated into Devon.<sup>39</sup>

I did not find any entries for this family latter part of the 1200s to the early 1500s looking at the South West Heritage Trust catalogues or at the UK Archives Discovery Catalogue.<sup>40</sup> Searching the Emigrant's Database for England<sup>41</sup> I did not find a Siderfin (Syderfin, Syderfyn, Siderfyn, Sitterfyn, Sidernefenne) in that database and James Sanders lists the first reference as a Robto de Sidernefenne listed in the Hundred Rolls of Somerset<sup>42</sup>, Ed. 1., 1274. There is a break in the chart between 1274 and the next mention of a Siderfin family which is John Siderfin and Christian his wife who lived at Luxborough around 1500 and their son William. A will abstract for William Sidervin of Luxborough, Somerset is available. Will dated 20 Aug 1568 proved 16 May 1572 (Taunton Registry)<sup>43</sup>. To be buried in the Chancel. Residue to Wilmot, my wife, to dispose of any goods as shall seem best to the pleasure of God and the weal of my Soul. Mr. Alexander Sydenham, a Witness.

First Generation

Appendix 1 refers to James Sanders comment on the ethnicity of the Siderfin family. Appendix 2 is evidence supporting the presence of the Siderfin family in the 1500s in Luxborough and area.

1. John Siderfin lived in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

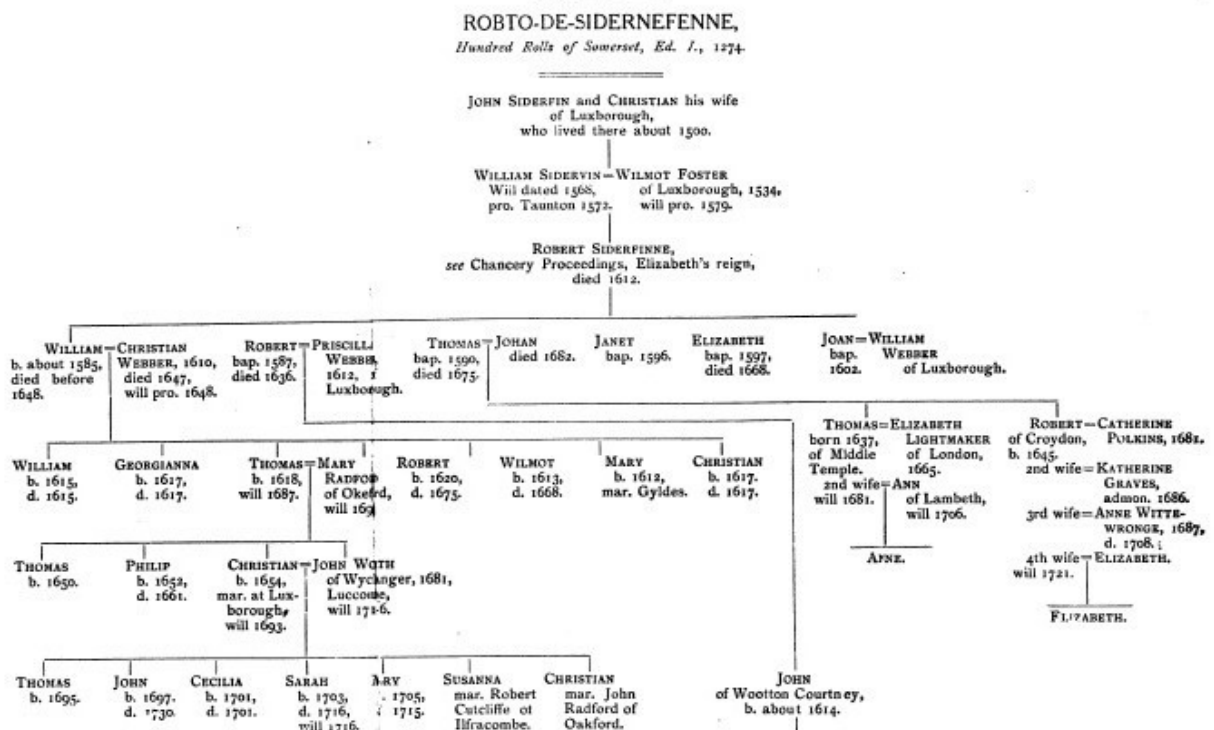

John married Christian (unknown).

Children from this marriage were:

+ 2 M i. William 2 (John 1) Siderfin lived in Luxborough, Somerset, England and died in or before 1572 in Luxborough, Somerset, England (will probated Taunton 1572).

Second Generation (Children)

2. William 2 Sidervin (John 1) lived in Luxborough, Somerset, England and was buried by 16 May 1572<sup>47</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

William married Wilmot Foster (daughter of John Foster of Luxborough). Wilmot died in or before 1579<sup>48</sup>.

Will of William Sidervin<sup>49</sup>, William Sidervin, Luxborough, Som[erse]t. gent. Will dated 20th Aug. 1568. Proved 16th May 1572 (Taunton Registry).

To be buried in the chancel ..... Residue to my son Robert and Wilmot my Wife to dispose of my goods as shall seem best to the pleasure of God and the weal of my soul . . . Mr. Alexander Sydenham of Coombe Sydenham family a witness. Wilmot Foster.

Will of Wilmote Siderven<sup>50</sup>, Wilmote Siderven, will proved 1579, mentions son Robert and daughter Jone Webber (Wester[o]n in parish register), also a granddaughter Jone (not located prior to 1579), but no mention of property.<sup>51</sup>

The son Robert and his wife Christian had eight children, William, born 1585; Robert, 1587; Thomas 1590; Janet 1596; Elizabeth, 1597; Jone, 1602. <sup>52, 53</sup>

The loss of the wills when the Exeter Record Office was bombed during World War II is enormous in terms of access to these ancient wills. Having the transcripts produced by family members and interested authors prior to the Second World War has been an enormous asset.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 4 M i. Robert 3 Siderfin (William 2, John 1) lived in Luxborough, Somerset, England and died after 19 Aug 1627 <sup>54</sup> and was buried by 31 Jan 1627/28 in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

<sup>47</sup> Will of William Sidervin probated 16 May 1572 (Taunton Registry). Original will was lost in the bombing of the Devon Record Office during World War II.

3. Christian 2 Siderfin (John 1) lived in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

Christian married George Escott on 14 Jun 1542 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>55</sup>. It is unknown whether there was any issue in this marriage. Searching Find My Past and Ancestry did not reveal any entries for baptisms, online trees for this family did name a Hugh Escott.

This recitation of the 1st and 2nd Generation of the Siderfin family since 1500 was a gift of James Sanders. He was one hundred years closer to the past. Whether or not the original wills that he transcribed were also transcribed by him are a mystery to me. Living in Canada and not having visited the Devon Record Office during my eight trips to England I was unaware until lately what his set of documents retained by the Devon Record Office contained.

The repository for these records is actually at the North Devon Record Office<sup>56</sup> which I did not visit. The fonds does tell me that he did not place a copy of the earlier wills in his records but only his transcriptions. I learned a lot from his book regarding original documents and the necessity to ensure that they remain available into the future.

<sup>57</sup> The will of Thomas Trill would be an interesting acquisition. His daughter Grace (Trill) Escott also left a will which is reprinted partially by James Sanders. It would be interesting to see what relationship there was between the Trill and the Siderfin families – this will of Thomas Trill was witnessed by John Siderfin and Robert Siderfin (John was a son of Robert according to the abstract (from the original book by James Sanders’ “History of the Siderfin Family of West Somerset, page 44”). The Escott surname may be the link back a number of generations at this time. Generation 2: Christian married George Escott on 14 Jun 1542 in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

Third Generation (Grandchildren)

4. Robert 3 Siderfin (William 2, John 1) was born circa 1540<sup>58</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England and was buried by 31 Jan 1627/28<sup>59</sup> (will probated 31 Jan 1627/28) in Luxborough, Somerset, England aged circa 87 years.

Robert married Christian (unknown) likely by 1585.

His children were<sup>60</sup>:

+ 6 M i. William 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1585<sup>61</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England, and died likely before 1641 as he does not appear on the Protestation Returns and on the 1642 Subsidy his widow appears as the owner/occupier.

+ 7 M ii. Robert 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1587<sup>62</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England and although James Sanders lists him as buried in 1636 he and his wife Ursula appear in a 1653 Answer Document to be mentioned later.

+ 8 M iii. Thomas 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1589<sup>63</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England, died in 1675, aged 86, and was buried 16 Dec 1675<sup>64</sup> in the parish church at Luxborough, Somerset, England.

+ 9 F iv. Christian 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized 14 Oct 1591<sup>65</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

<sup>58</sup> The suggested birth year for Robert Siderfin developed from the records which concern him. The mother of Robert (Wilmot (Foster) Siderfin received her marriage portion about 26 Henry VIII (1534-5) which means he was born after this time. Robert is listed in the Somerset Muster Roll, 1569, as an archer so was likely in his late teens or early twenties so an approximate year of birth of 1540 is reasonable (reflection of Elizabeth Kipp)

<sup>59</sup> Prerogative Court of Canterbury Will PROB 11/153/93, dated 19 Aug 1627 and probated 31 Jan 1627/28

<sup>60</sup> At this point, I need to mention that James Sanders has made an error (corrected in the text below) in listing the children of Robert Siderfin (son of William Sidervin and Wilmot Foster). James Sanders has also given Robert Siderfin a death date of 1612 but I believe he died in 1627. Robert, in his will written and probated in 1627, mentions his sister Jone/Joan's children and her grandchildren with the surname Westeron.

<sup>61</sup> James Sanders records in the original book that the first three children of Robert and Christian Siderfin were baptized but only giving a year. The Parish Registers for Luxborough are online at Family Search: commencing 1590 for baptisms, 1590 for marriages, 1590 for burials. That being said I did find a baptism on one of the early pages of the Luxborough Parish Register dated 1583 for a child's baptism of Robert Siderfin (it was not possible to determine anything beyond that. I did make a copy of that page.

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

+ 10 M v. John 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized 11 Sep 1594<sup>66</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England. Likely deceased by 19 Aug 1627 (not mentioned in his father's will)

+ 11 M vi. James 4 [Janet]<sup>67</sup> Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized 25 Feb 1596<sup>68</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England. Likely deceased by 19 Aug 1627 (not mentioned in his father's will)

+ 12 F vii. Elizabeth 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized 13 Aug 1599<sup>69</sup> in Luxborough [and died in 1668 aged 71]<sup>70</sup>.

+ 13 F viii. Jane 4 [Joan] Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized on 3 Oct 1602<sup>71</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

5. Jone 3 Siderfin (William 2, John 1). Jone/Joan Siderfin married William Wester[o]n on 13 Feb 1602<sup>72</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

Their child was:

+ 14 M i Robert Westeron (Jone 3, William 2, John 1) (named in his uncle's<sup>73</sup> will)

There are some discrepancies with the list of the children of Robert and Christian Siderfin as compared to the Pedigree Chart which James Sanders created. Christian is missing (baptized 1591), John is missing (baptized 1594), the register at Luxborough reads James not Janet for the child baptized 1596), and Elizabeth was baptized 1599. The list of children above is corrected to show these differences.<sup>74</sup>

<sup>74</sup> I switched the style of this book to a generational numbering system as it seemed easier to relate from one generation to the next. The text is thus moved about from its original position in James Sanders' book to suit this particular style of writing about the Siderfin Family in West Somerset (Elizabeth (Blake) Kipp)

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

This man [William Sidervin father of the third generation] had one son Robert and a daughter called Jone, who married William Webber, ?1602.<sup>75</sup> In actuality Jone/Joan married William Westeron on 13 Feb 1602 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>76</sup>.

After the death of William, a number of court cases were transcribed by James Sanders referring to a piece of property that had been part of the dower of William's wife Wilmot (Foster) Siderfin. This material forms Appendix 3.

I did locate a will at the National Archives of the UK for Robert Siderfyn probated 31 Jan 1627 (old style) by his wife Christian and son Thomas Siderfyn. It would appear that he did succeed in obtaining the property that would have been his mother Wilmothe's by marriage portion from her father.

<sup>77</sup> Mary Siderfin is missing from the Generation Three chart because I do not know where to place her. Is she Elizabeth he does not mention Elizabeth but on the chart she is said to have died in 1668. I leave it up to the reader to decide if she is Mary Elizabeth

Summary of will information:

Thoughts of the author: Robert Siderfin whose will was dated 19 Aug 1627 and probated 31 Jan 1627 (Old Style) is likely the Robert Siderfin mentioned in the Chancery papers during the latter part of Queen Elizabeth's reign. I do believe it to be him as I have collected up the information that is available. James Sanders was in error in his book the Siderfin Family of West Somerset regarding the death date for Robert Siderfin. After 110 years it is appropriate to readdress this book about the Siderfin Family and ensure that any new information is worked into it. Likely a few years from now even more will be available and some of my thoughts will be questioned as they should be or perhaps I will revise it once again. I spent enough years in Science studying and working that I would not be happy to think that people would accept all that I write as perfect. We are meant to question what is written so that we understand it better and make corrections where errors have been made in the past.<sup>78</sup>

Summary<sup>79</sup>: The testator, Robert Siderfyn, is living in the parish of Luxborowe (in the diocese of Bath and Wells, Somerset) and he asked to be buried in the Chancel of the Church at Luxborowe. He mentions a couple of people in the beginning of his will a Robert Siderfin<sup>80</sup>, son of William Siderfin, Robert Westeron, son of William Westeron and Robert Siderfin<sup>81</sup> son of Robert Siderfin of Minehead. He then mentions that his other sons and daughters have children. He then mentions his son William Siderfin, daughter (unmarried) Marie/Mary Siderfin<sup>82</sup>, and his son Thomas Siderfin. Thomas and Mary are to have the remainder of his lease in South Wheddon tenement, Cutcombe. They also inherit his lease to keep 100 sheep at Brundon plus his property there. As well seven acres of wood in Luxborowe (Priory Wood) for Thomas and Mary. He has a daughter Jane (likely married as he mentions her portion is not fully paid). Elnor Westeron (the testator's sister's grandson) and Johanne Croutch (his granddaughter) are also mentioned. His wife's name is Christian. He signs his will with his own hand (full signature Robert Siderfin) providing the transcription of the court recorder has been faithful.

I then searched the Somerset Archives for early records concerning Robert Siderfin and found the following:

DD/BW/2/133: Counterpart lease common of pasture for one hundred sheep on Brendon Common in Cutcombe. 3 Apr 1611; Repository: Somerset Heritage Centre, Reference number: DD/BVW2/133, Description: 1. John Pym Esqr of Brymore to 2. Robert Siderfin yeoman of Luxborough Apr 9 Jas 1 [1611]. Seal missing. Autograph: Siderfin. Indented.<sup>83</sup>

A proof that Robert Siderfin was still living 9 Apr 1611 as this particular indenture appears in his will. Robert mentions his grandson Robert son of his son William and he was baptized 27 Nov 1611. He also mentions his son Robert's son Robert and he was baptized 27 May 1616 a further proof that Robert was still living in 1616. As well Christian Siderfin (daughter of the testator Robert) was married to William Couch 3 Jun 1616 at Luxborough, Somerset and mentioning their daughter moves this proof on into 1617.

The Visitation of Somerset made in the year 1623 by Henry St. George and Sampson Lennard under Camden<sup>84</sup> offers further proof: In this text on page 131 under the heading: The names of those who usurped the title of Gentleman within the county of Somerset and were disclaimed at Dunster the 15th of August Anno 1623, subtitle: Ignobiles<sup>85</sup> - Robert Gitterfen of Loxborough

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

I do feel that sufficient proof has been provided to prove that Robert Siderfin did not die in 1612 as per the Pedigree Chart in James Sanders book but rather lived on to 1627 when he left his will which has been a great asset in looking at this Robert Siderfin of Luxborough.

William-Line

6. William 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1585 (a piece of the Parish Register remains which shows that a child of Robert Sidderfin was baptized in 1585) in Luxborough, Somerset, England, and he likely died in or before 1641 as he does not appear on the Protestation Returns, burial not located yet in the Luxborough Parish Registers<sup>89</sup>.

William married Christian Webber on 5 Feb 1610 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>90</sup>.

Christian died in 1647. Christian Sydderfin (widow) was buried 6 Mar 1647 at Luxborough Blessed Virgin Mary<sup>91</sup>.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 15 M i. Robert 5 Siderfin (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 27 Nov 1611 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>92</sup> and died in 1675 and was buried 8 Feb 1675<sup>93</sup> in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

+ 16 F ii. Mary 5 Siderfin (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born in 1612<sup>94</sup>.

+ 17 F iii. Ursula 5 (Wilmot) Siderfin (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 21 Nov 1613 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>95</sup>, and died in 1668 aged 55<sup>96</sup>.

+ 18 M iv. William 5 Siderfin (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 3 Jul 1615 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>97</sup>.

<sup>88</sup> In that the family of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) was so very large I have taken the liberty of separating out the lines of his children into the William-Line, the Robert-Line, the Thomas Line, etc.

<sup>104</sup> The baptism of Mary is missing from the Luxborough Parish Registers that I am able to read. I also was unable to find a marriage for Mary.

<sup>105</sup> James Sanders does have this William deceased as an infant as there is a burial shortly after the baptism of this William and I must admit to being curious who this William who was buried is actually. I did not find another William baptized by this couple. I did not find a marriage for this William nor did I find a baptism for his son Thomas. There are a few options for instance one of the children of Robert (William 2, John 1) could have died in 1615 as there isn't any further information on John who was baptized in 1594. I leave this one up to the future as more evidence comes to light on families and the continuing scanning of the ancient documents.

<sup>106</sup> Certainly I was surprised to see the name Johane Westerne as a grandchild but the only daughter of Christian known to survive to adulthood other than Mary (Siderfin) Gyldes was Wilmot. I was unable to locate a marriage for Wilmot. I did not find a baptism for a Georgianna (James Sanders listed her as a daughter in his Pedigree Chart).

Summary: I did not yet find a will for William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1). It is somewhat surprising but perhaps it will surface one of these days. Christian identifies herself as being a widow living in Luxborowe. She identifies her children as Mary Gyldes of Dunster, widow, with two sons William Gyldes and Robert Gyldes not yet twenty one years of age and a daughter Mary Gyldes who is over 21 and a second daughter Christian Gyldes who is not yet 21 years of age. She mentions her second son William Siderfin (James Sanders lists William as dying as an infant in his Pedigree Chart). Christian mentions a grandson Thomas son of her son William. Christian mentions a granddaughter Johane Westerne.<sup>107</sup> Robert, her eldest son (James Sanders has him born in 1620 but the only record I found was for a Robert baptized 27 Nov 1611) is mentioned and he has a daughter Wilmott and two sons Robert (who is named as joint executor with his uncle Thomas) and John. Thomas, her youngest son is mentioned but the reference to children is somewhat strange as he did not marry until 26 Jan 1652 at Oakford, Devon. Christian mentions her daughter Johanne not yet twenty one years of age. Also named as sons of Thomas were Thomas and Phillipp also not yet twenty one years of age. The daughter Christian is not mentioned. Christian, in her will, mentions two cousins John Squirell of Minehead and John Pearse of Carhampton to be overseers. The probate shows son Thomas and Thomas' nephew <sup>107</sup> In terms of the will of Christian Siderfin I do have Jone Siderfin as a sister of Robert Siderfinne and marrying a William Westerne and hence the mention in the will of Christian Siderfin of a Johane Westerne as a Grandchild. But it would appear that Johane, given that this is 1644 and Robert Westeron's (nephew to Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) would have been born after 1602 and by 1644 an adult with perhaps a daughter) possible daughter Johane would be a child a great niece to Christian (since her husband William now deceased would have been her possible uncle). In old wills, reference could often be made to individuals who were related with the stated relationship not what you would expect.

Robert as joint executors of the will which was probated 4 Jul 1648. I do realize that finding these wills was not as easy as it is now.

The date for the marriage of Thomas Siderfin and Mary Radford could not be located on the search databases for Find My Past or Ancestry and a reference online in other trees using the 26 Jan 1652 at Oakford, Devon does not work with the will of Christian Siderfin (mother of Thomas). Thomas was baptized in 1618 so probably did not marry before 1638 and his three children are all under 21 at the time of the writing of the will in 1644 and the fourth child Christian is not yet born. Was he perhaps married earlier with the first three children being from an earlier marriage? a quest for the future no doubt!

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Interesting to see that the eldest son of William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) namely Robert 5 names his three children Wilmot, Robert and John according to his mother Christian's will. They were fairly common names in the Siderfin family and their births would have been after 1630 likely as Robert (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized in 1611 (the 1620 on James Sander' Pedigree Chart does not fit with the Luxborough Parish Registers).

I reviewed the Timberscombe Parish Registers as I was looking for the two Robert's at East Linch/Lynch, Timberscombe listed on the Protestation Returns 1641. I have the fiche for the Timberscombe Parish Registers and reviewed them from 1656 to 1680 and there were not any Siderfin entries (including Syderfin, Sitterfine, etc)<sup>108</sup>. The 1642 subsidy paid at Timberscombe, East Linch by both Robert Syderfyn senior and Robert Syderfyn junior was 4 s and 3 s respectively (a low to medium amount) so was perhaps property rented out that belonged to the William-Line (Robert 3, William 2, John 1). It is known by the will of Christian (the mother) that her eldest son Robert had a son Robert (a daughter Wilmot and a son John) by her will written in 1644 and probated in 1648<sup>109</sup>.

Robert-Line

No doubt this family migrated to other parishes, for we find in the Subsidy Rolls, 21 James I., 1624, and later, at Mynehead we find Robto Saydersin.<sup>110</sup> Because James Sanders did not find the baptisms at Minehead for the children of Robert and Ursula I think he simply sees this as one of the descendants moving to Minehead since he has already written that Robert died in 1612. It is a little confusing though at this point in the story since this is actually the second son of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) named also Robert living at Minehead. I have placed this data in advance of the Fourth Generation but it does help to prepare us for the location of the sons of Robert (William 2, John 1) namely William at Luxborough, Robert at Minehead, Thomas at South Wheddon, Cutcombe with Robert and Thomas being the only sons living by the time of the Protestation Returns and the Subsidy of 1641.

<sup>110</sup> An interesting comment by James Sanders because the Siderfin family did in fact move outward from Luxborough to the surrounding parishes although still found at Luxborough in the next or 4th generation. I do not have access to these Subsidy Rolls<sup>112</sup>. Thomas Syderfin is listed as paying the subsidy at Minehead in 1642 along with Robert. Robert Syderfin is the grandson of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) and son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1). The 1673 Subsidy is interesting as it is listing Robert Siderfin who was still living at Minehead at this time and is either Robert 4 or Robert 5.

Before visiting England/British Isles I had no idea how big the country was (other than from my elementary school days when it was said that the entire British Isles could fit into Southwestern Ontario! Being there and going from the middle of the south of England to the Atlantic coast in a few hours did rather give me a much better picture of the size of England. It is a novel feeling to be standing at the coast looking out and realizing straight across is Newfoundland – a long way from home for sure.

7. Robert 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1587 (a piece of the Parish Register remains which shows that a child of Robert Sidderfin was baptized in 1587) in Luxborough, Somerset, England.

Robert married Ursula Webber on 23 Jul 1611 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>113</sup>. Ursula Siderfin's year of death or date of burial was not located.

A search on Robert Syderfin revealed a rather interesting document in the National Archives of the United Kingdom:

Plaintiffs: Alexander Francke.

Defendants: Robert Syderfin, Ursula Syderfin his wife and John Syderfin.

Subject: property in Timberscombe, Somerset.

I had not noticed this document earlier in my researching (i.e. 13 years ago) and it is one of the hazards in genealogy; not covering all of the possible spellings for a surname but I was pretty new and much more seasoned thirteen years later! I debated putting the entire transcription into

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Finding this document verified a premise that I had made that Robert 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) did not die in 1636 as James Sanders has entered on the Pedigree Chart. I was not sure about his son Robert but the document does mention him so I have left it in my mind that he also survived to at least 1653. I will discuss this document along with a couple of other documents that I purchased when the Fifth and Sixth Generations are discussed.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 21 F i. Wilmot 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 7 Jul 1614 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>114</sup>.

+ 22 M ii. Robert 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 27 May 1616 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>115</sup>.

+ 23 M iii. John 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 11 Apr 1619 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>116</sup>.

There is a burial for a ...rt Siderfin the 19th Jun 1636 at Luxborough<sup>117</sup>. At this time, I am not sure who this is, I leave it for other researchers to solve. There does not appear to be a will for Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) or his wife Ursula. Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was the second son and most property would have gone to his older brother William 4.

Thomas-Line

8. Thomas 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1590 and died in 1675 aged 85 and was buried 16 Dec 1675 at Luxborough, Somerset England<sup>118</sup>.

Thomas married Johan Waggatt. Johan Siderfin died in 1682 aged 82 and was buried 1 Jan 1682 at Luxborough, Somerset, England.<sup>119</sup>

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Children from this marriage were:

+ 24 M ii. Thomas 5 Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1637 in Luxborough<sup>120</sup>, Somerset, England and was buried 24 May 1681 in St Mary Lambeth, Lambeth, London, England.

+ 25 M iii. Robert 5 Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 27 Nov 1645 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>121</sup>, and died in 1720 aged 75. He was buried 14 Jul 1720 in Luxborough Blessed Virgin Mary, Somerset, England<sup>122</sup>.

Thomas 4 Siderfin was a local Justice of the Peace. (See Appendix 4)

Robert 4 and Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1), the two younger sons of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) were surviving at the time of the Protestation Returns but Thomas 4, signs at Carhampton perhaps because he has property at South Wheddon, and he signs as Gent and it is generally accepted that he was regarded as of that status. The other Thomas Siderfin signing at Luxborough would be the son of William (Robert 3, William 2, John 1). He would be 23 years of age at that time. There are two entries for Thomas Siderfin on the 1642 Subsidy although only one has gent written beside it but they are likely the same person; the property at South Wheddon, Cutcombe would be the larger property.

According to Wikipedia, gentleman is the lowest level of the landed gentry (hence below an esquire and above a yeoman). The Siderfin family did appear to be part of the landed gentry at some times and disclaimed at others.<sup>123</sup>

There are a number of items on the Somerset Archive that pertain to Thomas 4 Siderfin (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and his position as a Justice of the Peace (I have omitted the many court cases partly because they are numerous and do not pertain to his personal land dealings for the most part. As well marriages, etc which were performed by him are not included although this information is available, See Appendix 4):

14. Robert Western<sup>142</sup>

Establishing where the many different lines descending from Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) lived in Carhampton Hundred was aided by the use of the Protestation Returns for Somerset<sup>143</sup> 1641. James Sanders made an error on page 18 of his text which I shall mention at this point. Do find his reference to Cutcombe in the first paragraph on page 18 where he states “Cutcombe names as follows<sup>144</sup>” I went back to both the original documents on the Parliamentary Library online archives site<sup>145</sup> as well as the CD of the Protestation Returns to check as I only located Siderfin names at Carhampton, Luxborough, Minehead and Selworthy. I believe I found the likelihood of why the discrepancy since the Curate at Cutcombe and the Curate at Luxborough are the same individual. Cutcombe Parish<sup>146</sup> names the Curate as Robert Winter, John Milton and George Baker as Churchwardens, Laurence Widlake and John Thorne as Overseers. Luxborough Parish<sup>147</sup> names Robert Winter as the Curate, with Edward Briant and John Winter as Churchwardens, and William Siderfin and William Welshe as Overseers. It appears that a section of text was lost showing that William Siderfin was at Luxborough not Cutcombe.

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

In 1641 a Protestation was entered into all parishes before two of his Majesty's Justice of Peace 'to support the Protestant religion against all Popery, etc.' Among the parishes in the 'Hundred of Carhampton' was Cutcombe names as follows: Re winter clerk; George Baker and John Milton, churchwardens; Laurence Widlake, John Thorne, [[missing text<sup>148</sup>,] and Luxborough Parish names the Curate as Robert Winter, Edward Briant and John Winter as Churchwardens and<sup>149</sup> William Syderfin, Willyam Welshe, overseers; and in Selworthy "there is none that refused and all have been willing to take it. John Siderfin with the rest.

“Shewing there was a John Siderfin at Selworthy in 1641.”<sup>150</sup>

I should also mention that at Cutcombe two of the individuals signing the Protestation Return had the surname Safffin (namely Tho: Saffin and George Saffin) which I did find suspicious but I could not locate any members of this family in Carhampton other than Cutcombe where there were not any Siderfin families (although there should have been a Thomas Siderfin there). The Saffin/Saffyn family was located primarily in Williton hundred at Crocombe, Bickenaller, Stogumber and Nettlecombe for a total of 15 members on the Subsidy of 1641/42<sup>151</sup> (there was a George Saffin on both the Cutcombe Protestation Return 1641 and the Crocombe Subsidy 1642). I did find it curious that there was a Thomas Saffin at Cutcombe but not in Williton hundred and that the Somerset 1642 Subsidy at Cutcombe does have a Thomas Syderfyn. Perhaps a spelling error on the part of the clerk who wrote all the names down at the time of the Protestation Return being taken. It does confuse the issue somewhat though and at some point it could be resolved possibly with other records.

I believe Saffin to be a free-standing surname with 914 records on Free BMD<sup>152</sup> with this spelling and zero with the Saffyn spelling.<sup>153</sup>

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Somerset Protestation Returns 1641

Hundred	Parish	Forename	Surname	Other
Carhampton	Carhampton	Thomas	Sidderfin	Gent
Carhampton	Luxborough	Robert	Sidderfin
Carhampton	Luxborough	Thomas	Sidderfin
Carhampton	Minehead	Robert	Sidderfin
Carhampton	Selworthy	John	Sidderfin
Carhampton	Luxborough	William	Sidderfin	overseer

The three Siderfin members at Luxborough likely belong to the William-Line with Robert, William and Thomas being the sons of William (their mother Christian is a widow in 1642 – I believe that the transcription listing Crispian Siderfin on the Somerset Subsidy 1642 is incorrect and this should be Christian Syderfin widow of William since she is listed as the property owner/occupier). The Robert-Line has son Robert at Minehead and son John at Selworthy. James Sanders, in his Pedigree Chart, does have Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) dying in 1636 but this is incorrect as he and his wife Ursula are the defendants in the Answer document mentioned earlier in this particular generation. In that document Robert 4 was living at Old Knowle which is near Wootton Courtney. The Thomas-line would be Thomas 4 Sidderfin son of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) with sons Thomas and Robert and Thomas being too young to sign the Protestation Returns and Robert was baptized 27 Nov 1645 at Luxborough.<sup>154</sup> On the Protestation Returns Thomas signs at Carhampton and he pays the 1642 Subsidy at Cutcombe because this is the property which he was given by his father Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) (South Wheddon is in Cutcombe).

Tax	Hundred	Parish	Forename	Surname	Other	Amount
1642	Carhampton	Luxborow Everhard	Crispian <sup>156</sup>	Syderfin		6 s 8 d
1642	Carhampton	Luxborow Everhard	William	Syderfin		4 s 8 d
1642	Carhampton	Timberscombe	Rob	Syderfyn	sen	4 s
1642	Carhampton	Timberscombe	Rob	Syderfyn	jun	3 s
1642	Carhampton	Browne in Treborough	Wm	Syderfyn		8 x 1 d
1642	Carhampton	Wootton Courtney	Robert	Syderfyn		13 s 6 d
1642	Carhampton	Cutcombe	Thomas	Syderfyn		11 s
1642	Carhampton	Carhampton	Thos	Syderfyn	gent	5 s 6 d
1642	Carhampton	Mynehead	Thomas	Syderfyn		4 s 6 d
1642	Carhampton	Mynehead	Robert	Syderfyn		4 s 7 d

As mentioned above I believe that Crispian is actually Christian (widow of William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1)) and this does appear to indicate that William is deceased by 1642 so it is either William (husband of Christian) in 1641 on the Protestation Return or his son William.

Looking at the remaining lines which includes the Siderfin-Couche Line, the James-Line, the Nurcombe-Siderfin-Line and the Webber-Siderfin Line, Robert 3's (William 2, John 1) will mentions his granddaughter Johane Couch but locating this family using the Protestation Returns produced several possibilities. There is a William Couch at Watchet, St Decumans, and a William Couch at Old Cleve and a third William Cooche at Sampford Brett (all three are in the Williton and Freemanors Hundred). The Elizabeth-Siderfin-Line will need more research. Since one-name studies do not generally follow a female line I am content for the moment to leave the three lines including the John-Line and James-Line (Robert 3 William 2, John 1). Robert does not mention his sons John or James in his will.

Continuing to look at the Somerset Subsidy 1642 and there are several individuals not yet assigned to a family. Robert at Minehead would be the grandson of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) and son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and with Robert 4 at Wootton Courtney. Christian would be the widow of William son of Robert (William 2, John 1) and William the son of William (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Christian. Is William also at Browne in Treborough although we do see this property belonging to Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1)<sup>157</sup>? Thomas at Cutcombe is Thomas son of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1) living at South Wheddon which is in Cutcombe parish. The Robert Siderfins in Timberscombe at East Linch are interesting and are likely Robert son of William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Christian and Robert junior a son of this Robert (Robert senior was baptized 27 Nov 1611 at Luxborough), The Thomas Siderfin at Carhampton and Minehead would likely be Thomas 4 son of Robert 3 (William 2, John 1).

James Sanders recorded the interesting information from the Carhampton Hundred Benevolence granted, Charles II, 1662:

Robert Syderfin	Minehead	2s	6d
Robert Syderfin	Timberscombe	5s	0d
Wm. Syderfin	Luxborough	10s	0d

Robert-Line

21. Wilmot 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 7 Jul 1614 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>189</sup>. In the Answer document of 1653, Wilmot is mentioned along with the comment that the banns had been read for her marriage to Robert Franke. I was unable to locate the marriage lines. Wilmot may still be living in 1653 as Robert (her father) did request her widow's portion in the Answer document; it was difficult to make that decision reading the Answer document.<sup>190</sup>

22. Robert 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 27 May 1616 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>191</sup>. Robert is on the Protestation Returns at Minehead in 1641 and on the Somerset Lay Subsidy in 1642 also at Minehead. No further details were located for Robert other than his father Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) mentioning him once in the Answer document in 1653.<sup>192</sup>

23. John 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 11 Apr 1619 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>193</sup>.

James Sanders states in his text<sup>194</sup> ("Shewing there was a John Siderfin at Selworthy in 1641.") that John Siderfin found on the Protestation Returns at Selworthy is proof that the Siderfin family was at Selworthy at least by 1642. Of note the only John found in the Parish Registers reviewed in the areas in which the Siderfin family lived thus far living and old enough in 1642 to sign the Protestation Returns is the son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) in the Robert-Line and he would be 22-23 years of age at that time.

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

John 5 (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) could have married Thomasina [Syderfin] and is the assumption that I do make.<sup>195</sup> Thomasina was buried on 11 Aug 1709 in Wootton Courtney<sup>196</sup>, Somerset, England. James Sanders has omitted Robert 5 (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) from his chart as a son of Robert 4.

John 5 Siderfin (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) found on the Protestation Returns at Selworthy in 1641 is likely still in Selworthy in 1653 since he does not appear anywhere else. As a younger son he may have been afforded a cottage to live in during his lifetime (until his father died (Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) lived at Old Knowle)) and that of his wife. I have not been able to identify a marriage for John Siderfin and Thomasin (unknown). John 5 (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was the younger son of Robert 4 and he was baptized in 1619 at Minehead – this line does become schoolmasters in the generations to follow at Selworthy<sup>197</sup>. Of interest John 5's great grandson Augustine 7 Siderfin (Robert 6, John 5, Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) had a title to the property called Lower Knowle<sup>198</sup> in Tivington mentioned in his will in 1762. The Archives of the United Kingdom does not reveal any property interactions for a John Siderfin in this time period. Thomasine, the mother of Robert 6 Siderfin<sup>199</sup> (John 5, Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) married to Elizabeth Question, was buried at Wootton Courtney 11 Aug 1709<sup>200</sup>. Robert 6 would have been 51 years of age at that time.

<sup>195</sup> Assumption of the author, Robert, his older brother, does not leave any records other than being on the Protestation Return in 1641. He was probably still living but I simply have not located records that belong to him after the Somerset Lay Subsidy of 1642 where he does appear other than his father Robert 4 mentioning his name one time in the Answer document to the complaint made by the Franke family in 1653

<sup>197</sup> James Sanders, History of the Siderfin Family of West Somerset, page 45. 1762. Augustine Siderfin, of Selworthy, School Master. Mentions son, Robert, daughter in law Grace Siderfin. To son John all his right title, interest, property, claim, term of years, etc., to one estate called Lower Knowle, in Tivington, in Selworthy, during his life, but in case son John shall die before son Robert, then estate called Lower Knowle to granddaughter, Mary Siderfin, daughter of son John. Will dated 13th January, 1760.

<sup>198</sup> In the 1653 Answer by Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) he mentions that he lives at Old Knowle (near Wootton Courtney) so the presence of this property in the family is long standing with Augustine Siderfin mentioning in his will the property Lower Knowle (this will can be found in full in the 7th generation)

<sup>199</sup> Because I do not see any alternatives and James Sanders had a great deal of access to family material I do accept that Thomasin[e] was the mother of Robert baptized 1658 at Selworthy

<sup>202</sup> This reference to Robert Siderfin at Linch (deceased at 25 years of age in 1714) as a cousin in the will of Thomasin Siderfin does not go unnoticed and is perhaps a proof that the husband of Thomasine was a “cousin (actually 1st cousin 3x removed)” in that her husband (John 5)’s father Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was a brother to Robert’s (at Linch) great-grandfather William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1)

<sup>205</sup> I continue to search the various sets of records that record abstracts of the wills in Somerset and have yet to locate this abstract for the will of Thomasin Siderfin. Does the information stand alone without the abstract? The 1653 Answer by Robert Sider and Ursula his wife to the Complaint document by the Franke family does give me a continuance in this line down to his children – Wilmot, Robert and John. Robert Siderfin’s presence at Old Knowle is also a powerful piece of knowledge in that this property remained in this line for a period of time well into the 1800s. Thomas Siderfin of the Middle temple, London, Esq.: Will dated March 17 1678. Proved 15 June 1681 by Ann Siderfin the Relict (98 North). To my wife Ann, George Evelyn and Henry Pollexfen Esqre and my brother Robert Siderfin, my messuages of Crodon, Manors of Exton and South Quarme (in Exton). Lands in Carhampton, Somerset and in Lambeth, Withypoole, Hawkridge, Cutcombe, Lucombe, Timberscombe and Lands elsewhere, in trust to pay my wife £1000 and £100 a year during widowhood and my daughter Anne £2000 at 21 years of age and £50 per annum and if they die the premises in Somerset to my brother Robert Siderfin his heirs male of his body - Wife Executrix in presence of Robert Darch, Wilmote Westrene, William Jordan, wife's mother Ann Hinde.<sup>213</sup>

The only will that I located for Thomas Siderfin, Middle Temple, 1678, was in the Rev Frederick Brown's Abstracts of Somerset Wills.

Thomas Siderfin, of the Middle Temple, London, Esq. Will dated Mar 17, 1678, proved June 15, 1681, by Ann Siderfin the relict. To my wife Ann, George Evelyn and Henry Pollexfen, of the Inner Temple, Esquire, and my brother Robert Siderfin, my Messuages of Crodon, Manors of Exton and South Quarme [in Exton], lands in Carhampton, Somerset, and in Lambeth etc for 100 pounds a year to my wife and my daughter Anne 50 pounds per annum. If they die the premises in Somerset to my brother Robert Siderfin. My honoured Mother Ann Hinde [erased].<sup>214</sup>

Thomas' brother Robert applied for a Bill to settle the estate of his brother Thomas Siderfin. House of Lord Journal: Siderfin's Bill - Estate of Thomas Siderfin, Esquire, on 13 Dec 1699, in Exton, etc, Somerset. House of Lord Journal: Siderfin's Bill, on 23 Jan 1700, in Exton, etc, Somerset. Searching on Thomas Siderfin using Discovery on the National Archives UK website yielded 31 records with twenty of them being in the time period 1600 – 1699. One rather interesting one that I had not noted earlier was Siderfin's Estate Act (Reference: HL/PO/JO/10/1/523/1470) wherein the estate of Thomas Siderfin, deceased, was to be sold for payment of debts 13 Dec 1699. This is Thomas 5 (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) the son of Thomas 4 who was the third son of Robert 3 Siderfin.

James Sanders has a section named: History of Taunton, 1678.<sup>215</sup> Included perhaps just to give some information on this Thomas Siderfin. He also includes information on John Worth who married Christian and would have been Thomas Siderfin's first cousin (their fathers were William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) respectively. A book does exist labelled the History of Taunton and can be located on Google Books written by the late Joshua Toulmin, D.D. and the original preface by Dr. Toulmin reads Taunton, May 21st, 1791. I did not, however, locate this information in that book.

History of Taunton, 1678:

The following gentlemen were first members of the Corporation: Roger Gale, Mayor, and 2 Aldermen, 11 capital Burgesses, 11 inferior Burgesses, and a Town Clerk. Thomas Syderfin, Recorder.

The first Mayor it was directed should be sworn into his office by Peter, Bishop of Bath and Wells, Sir William Portman, Bart., and Thomas Synderfin, Esqr., or any of them, etc.

Perhaps one of the last items that Thomas Siderfin was involved in recorded in the following will:

In the will of Sir Francis Rolle, of Shapwich, Somerset, Knight, 1686, proved - indenture of lease 3 Dec. 1685, between the said Sir Francis Rolle and Sir Halswell Tynte, Bart., Alex. thistlethawte, Esqr., Thomas Siderfin, Mid. 25. Robert 5 Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was baptized on 27 Nov 1645 in Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>218</sup>, and died in 1719 aged 75 and was buried on 14 Jul 1719 in Blessed Virgin Mary Luxborough, Somerset, England<sup>219</sup>.

In 1688 Robert Siderfin became one of the Deputy Lieutenants in Somerset.<sup>220</sup> Continuing in the theme of 1688 and appointments (quoted in its entirety in the footnote below) this section dealt with Minehead itself.<sup>221</sup>

Robert married Katharine Polkins (Potkins) on 3 Feb 1680 in Aldgate St James, Dukes Place, London, England<sup>222</sup>. Catherine died before 2 Jan 1682 aged 24 years<sup>223</sup>.

Robert next married Katherine Graves on 2 Jan 1682 in St Mary Woolnoth, London, England<sup>224</sup>. Katherine died in 1686 and was buried 12 Aug 1686 in Exeter Cathedral, Devon, England<sup>225</sup>.

One of the two earlier wives was "Katherine Siderfin alias Graves," administration of whose estate was granted to him in November, 1686. By one of the earlier marriages he had two sons, Walter and Robert, but neither is referred to in his will, by which he left all his lands in Somerset and Devon, subject to a charge for the payment of his debts, to his wife Elizabeth, and made her residuary legatee and sole executrix. An Act of Parliament was needed to resolve the indebtedness of Thomas' and his brother Robert's Estates. (See Appendix 5)

James Sanders writes: Upon reading the humble Petition of Robert Siderfin, of Croydon, in the County of Somerset, Esquire; shewing, "That divers Lands of the Petitioner's, in the County of Somersett, are mortgaged for great Sums of Money; and he, owing other Monies upon Bond, cannot discharge the same, otherwise than by Sale of Part of the said Lands; which is not in his Power (by reason of a subsequent Settlement) without the Aid of an Act of Parliament, whereunto all the Parties to the said Settlement are freely consenting; and praying Leave to bring in a Bill, to vest Part of the said Lands in Trustees, and, by the Sale thereof, to pay off the Debts of the Petitioner:"<sup>239</sup>

It is ORDERED, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, That the Petitioner hath hereby Leave given him to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition.<sup>240</sup>

This particular Robert 5 Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was referred to as Esquire (so one step up from Gentleman) and he married a Baronet's daughter Ann Wittewronge daughter of Sir John Wittewronge of Rothamsted, Hertfordshire. The article that James Sanders mentioned that the Parish Church at Luxborough did not have any monuments but inside the Church on the floor was located a memorial inscription to Ann who died 5 May 1708<sup>245</sup>.

To completely resolve the indebtedness: Siderfin's Estate Act<sup>246</sup>

Annexed to Siderfin's Estate Act<sup>247</sup> dated 13 Dec 1699

- a) 11 Dec -- Petition of Robert Siderfin, of Croydon, in the county of Somerset.
- b) 22 Jan -- Consent of John Worth, of Luxborrow, James Cornish, of Withill, and Thomas Darch, of Stawley.

The date 1699 places this at the time when Ann (Wittewronge) Siderfin was still alive. The Manor of Exton belonged to Thomas Siderfin as mentioned in his will of 1678 (pages 59-60<sup>248</sup>). Croydon was given to his brother Robert Siderfin in that will and Robert and Ann had married 16 Jun 1687 at St Nicholas Cole Abbey, London. Although James Sanders does mention "By one of the earlier marriages he had two sons, Walter and Robert, but neither is referred to in his will."<sup>249</sup>

The child from this marriage was (I have not listed her generations as will be noted below):

+ 41 F i. Elizabeth Siderfin<sup>250</sup>

The will of Elizabeth Siderfin (was Gould maiden name unknown) perhaps helps to clarify Elizabeth although James Sanders does name her as a child of the marriage of Robert and Elizabeth. I tend to think I am correct and she is the Elizabeth Gould mentioned in her mother's will probated 24 Apr 1728 and daughter of James Gould. The will of Elizabeth Siderfin (widow 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) in his will. He does not mention his wife in the will. Estimated by me that he would be around 57 years of age when he died<sup>259</sup>. Neither a baptism nor a marriage were found for this Robert 6 Siderfin but his burial is likely the 13 October 1688 at Selworthy. The land which was bequeathed to his son William 7 was in the Parish of Luxborough although this son lived at Minehead at least from the date of his marriage onward. There is a Robert Siderfin<sup>260</sup> who witnessed the will and is mentioned in the Inventory along with William 7 Siderfin implying that they were brothers but not actually stating that. But the line is such that the implication appears to be complete in its context. Just a little stronger proof than all the actual documents mentioning William 7 Siderfin as a son of Robert 6 Siderfin the elder of East Linch and Timberscombe. The transcript requires filling in more documents/permission so have not.

<sup>260</sup> Likely his older brother Robert 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) in order to show agreement with his father's will and inventory

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

James Sanders has Robert 5 (red square) as b 1620 and d 1675, actually he was baptized in 1611 and is mentioned in his mother Christian's will along with his son Robert 6 (I estimate a birth year for this Robert circa early 1630s). Fortunately the land records show that Robert 5 Siderfin at East Linch and Timberscombe (Robert 5 son of William 4 and Christian) and his son Robert 6 were at East Linch and Timberscombe on the Protestation Returns 1641 (Robert 6 would have been a little young but sometimes children younger than 18 did sign the Return. Then quite clearly in the land records Robert 6 (the son of Robert 5) has two sons Robert 7 and William 7 with William 7 shown on the chart above incorrectly as sons of John of Wootton Courtney (who was a son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) the brother of William 4 (married to Christian Webber)). This does, I feel, clarify the lineage of this particular set of Robert Siderfin males. With Robert 7 being the father of Robert 8 and Walter 8 both linked to a father John on the chart which is incorrect as will be shown.

The following land records clearly show the relationship between Robert 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Robert 7 (Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and William 7 (Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1).

The children from this marriage were:

John 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) is the younger son of Robert 5 Siderfin the elder likely born in the 1630s but after his brother Robert 6 since Robert 6 is found on the Protestation Returns 1641. Both boys and their sister Wilmot are mentioned by their

<sup>265</sup> Apparently Robert and Elizabeth were still living in 1714 when Robert son of Robert and Elizabeth (Blackburn) Siderfin was buried at Selworthy at the age of 25 years as shown on the Brass Memorial in the Selworthy Church (Monumental Brasses in Somerset, Arthur B Connor, ISBN-10, 0901571326, Page 95 Item VII. Reference is made to James Sanders' History of the Siderfin Family of West Somerset" in Connor's footnote (same page) which states: Robert Siderfin, yeoman, whose will was proved, 9 Aug 1732, mentions a son Robert, as does also his widow Elizabeth, will proved 1740. The History of the family by James Sanders, of South Molton, 1912, is not explicit on this subject. Arthur Connor, in his book on the Brass Memorials, mentions that "Robert Siderfin appears to have been the son of the Robert Siderfin who married Elizabeth Blackford. Richard Blackford, to whose memory there is a brass inscription, dated 1689, at Dunster, mentions in his will his cousin Robert Siderfin." An interesting aside and it does rather fit into this scheme that I have constructed (the author and see Generation Seven)

<sup>266</sup> James Sanders has these dates but his father does not mention that William is under age in his will (i.e. under 21)

grandmother Christian Siderfin in her will dated 23 Nov 1644. Robert 5 and Robert 6 appear on the Protestation Returns as Robert Siderfin the elder and Robert Siderfin the younger at East Linch (son and grandson of Christian Webber), Timberscombe. Since the grandmother names Robert first, Wilmot second and John third in her will it is likely that he is the youngest. He does not stand to inherit land and will likely take up an occupation if his brother survives to inherit. With that in mind and looking at the Pedigree Chart which James Sanders produced but did not include the children of Robert 5 (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) one notes that there is a John said to be born in 1614 and living at Wootton Courtney.

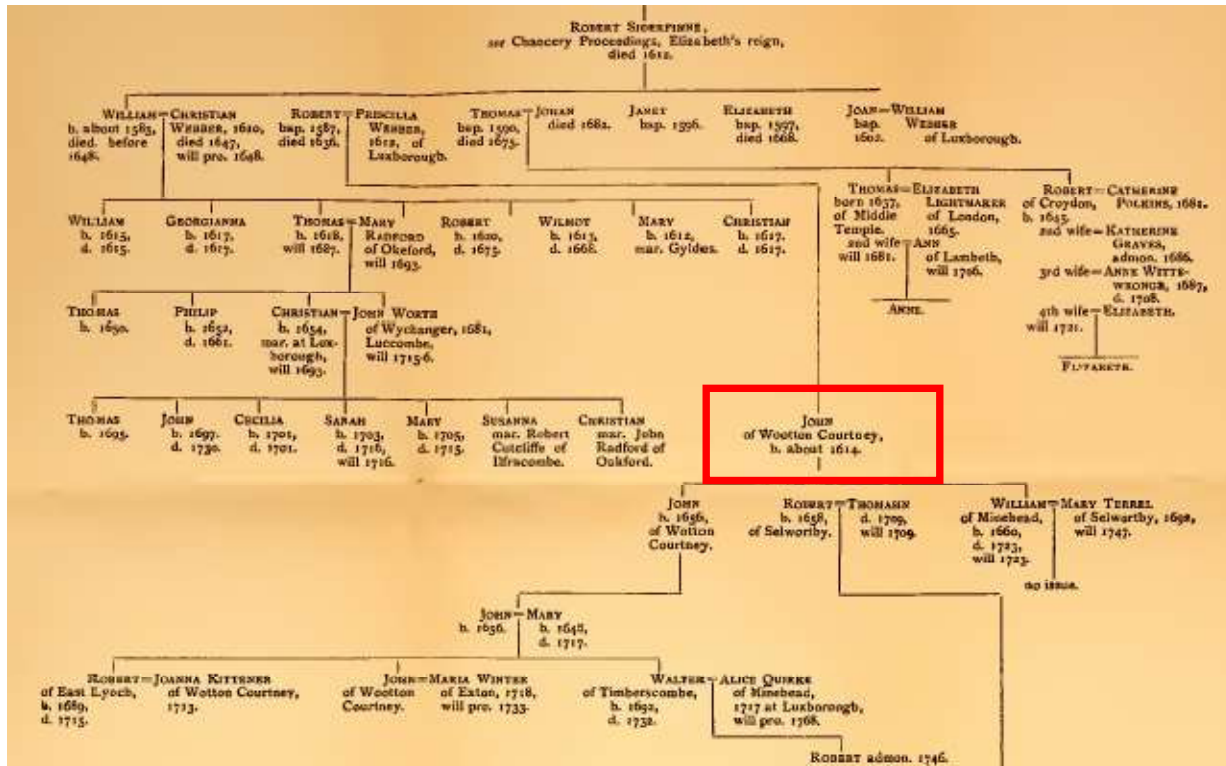

Figure 13: The highlight refers to John son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) on James Sanders' Pedigree Chart and is the same background as Figure 12.

Enclosed in a red box, John Siderfin is said to be the son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Priscilla Siderfin. The marriage lines for this Robert 4 have his wife named Ursula Webber<sup>270</sup>. According to the Minehead Parish Registers this couple baptized three children at Minehead – Wilmot 1614, Robert 1616, and John 1619.

<sup>270</sup> James Sanders was in error recording John of Wootton Courtney b about 1614 (actually born in 1619 as the son of Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Ursula)

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

I believe that this John is actually John 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and James Sanders has simply put him into the wrong family. There are no baptismal records for Robert 6 or Wilmot 6 or John 6 although they are mentioned in their Grandmother's will<sup>271</sup>. No marriage located for John 6. The name of his wife missing in the baptismal certificate for John 7.

Children from this marriage were (there are a number of corrections to the information in James Sanders' book for these children as seen below):

“Wychanger”. Mrs. Mary Worth, will proved, 1699<sup>304</sup> by John Worth, her son. To her daughter, Sarah Worth, she gave all her interest "in a messuage known as Broadmead in Selworthy," also certain chests "standing in the gallery and hall chamber at, Witchanger" including the "great chist" in the gallery " on which her harpsicords stand." she gave a piece of gold of 20s to her daughter in lawe Christian<sup>305</sup> wife of her son John Worth, and for legacies to her fower grandchildren, daughters of her said son, John Worth, viz., to Christian and Mary £5 apiece, and unto Susannah and Sarah £3 apiece, to their brother, Thomas Worth her grandson, she bequeathed her "silver belle."<sup>306</sup>

All of the children named in both wills were under the age of 21 years in 1689 and 1699. Mary Worth’s will mentions four grandchildren but there are five listed by her and this would appear to help verify the data above for the children of John Worth and Christian (Siderfin) Worth.

The Thomas-Line in this 6th generation is somewhat weak. A baptism can not be located for William 7 Siderfin circa 1660 but he did live at Minehead. His father (James Sanders has John 5 (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) I postulate Robert 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) simply because this Robert 6 was traditionally at Timberscombe and William is referred to in a deed as the son of Robert 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). Later William is mentioned in the same set of deeds as married to Mary and living at Minehead<sup>341</sup>.

A deed from 1698 provided further proof for William Siderfin as the son of Robert Siderfin of East Lynch.<sup>342</sup>

I discovered that the first Siderfin entry in the Wootton Courtenay parish records was John Siderfin son of John Siderfin and he was baptized 15 Jul 1656<sup>349</sup> (no entries prior to that date for Siderfin in baptisms and these registers commenced in 1558<sup>350</sup>). I continue with my suspicion that this John 7 baptized at Wootton Courtenay in 1656 was actually the son of John 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and not the son of John 5 (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1)<sup>351</sup>.

Why they marry at West Monkton is perhaps a mystery as it is 53 kilometres from Selworthy. John Siderfin's and Mary (Chapman) Siderfin's son Robert was baptized 15 Dec 1688 at Selworthy<sup>355</sup>. No other baptisms were located for this couple although I do wonder if a thorough review of West Monkton might reveal a John Siderfin baptized there very close to the date of the marriage. The information available on James Sanders Pedigree Chart includes a John b 1656 and Mary b 1648 and Mary died 1717<sup>356</sup>.

In the line at the bottom of James Sanders' Pedigree chart above under John – Mary (see red box) there are three individuals listed. Robert Siderfin b c 1689 and married to Joanna Kittener 25 Apr 1713<sup>357</sup> at Wooton Courtney (he is of East Lynch and Joanna is of Wooton Courtney), next to him on the same line a John Siderfin married to Maria Winter and third on the line is a Walter Siderfin b c 1692 said to be of Timberscombe married to Alice Quirke of Minehead 25 Jan 1717<sup>358</sup> at Luxborough<sup>359</sup>. One error here is obvious (the John Siderfin of Wooton Courtney and the John Siderfin married to Mary are both b 1656 so the same person). Another error in the chart as I believe I have shown that this is the son of John 6 (Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). We will return to Robert Siderfin b c 1689 and Walter Siderfin b c 1692 later.

James Sanders includes the following information in his book:

In the Carhampton Hundred Benevolence granted, Charles II., 1662<sup>360</sup>:

Robert Syderfin	Minehead	2s	6d
Robert Syderfin	Timberscombe	5s	0d
Wm. Syderfin	Luxborough	10s	0d
Thos. Syderfin	Luxborough	10s	0d

<sup>357</sup> This is the correct date for this marriage from the Parish Registers of Wooton Courtney, accessed Find My Past, 9 Jun 2023

<sup>359</sup> The information that has been verified in the registers by me are so footnoted. The other dates are from James Sanders' book: History of the Siderfin Family of West Somerset

<sup>360</sup> Palatinate Benevolence 1662 and I could not locate this in the House of Lords Journal which is online. There is a reference to 1622. However the names could correspond to this interval of time (ie. 1660s). In 1622 the reference also works as Robert 3 was still alive and at Luxborough. His three sons were also all living with Robert 4 at Minehead, William 4 at Luxborough and Thomas 4 at Luxborough.

Robert 5 (Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) is at Minehead (since there isn't a Robert at Wootton Courtney it is tempting to think that Robert 5 has survived (and he lived at Minehead) although Robert 4 was still alive in 1653), Robert 5 (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) at Timberscombe, William 5 (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) at Luxborough, and Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) at Luxborough. This particular tax was said to be applied during the reign of Charles II. It does account for one of the living sons of Robert 3<sup>362</sup> – Thomas 4 at Luxborough, William 4's sons Robert 5 and William 5 were at Timberscombe and Luxborough respectively. Robert 4 was at Knowle in 1653 and likely there in 1662 if still living but did not appear on this Benevolence Chart produced by James Sanders.

It is unfortunate that James Sanders does omit the grandchildren mentioned by Christian (Webber) Siderfin widow of William 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) in his chart and writeup. He used only an abstract of Christian's will<sup>363</sup>.

The children from this marriage were:

+ 69 M i John 8 Siderfin (John 7, John 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1)<sup>364</sup>

+ 70 M ii. Robert 8 Siderfin (John 7, John 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 15 Dec 1688 in Selworthy, Somerset, England<sup>365</sup>.

The records indicate that John married Maria Winter on 8 Dec 1718 in Exton, Somerset, England<sup>366</sup>. Maria was born 1676, died aged 57<sup>367</sup>, and was buried on 4 Apr 1733 in Exton, Somerset, England<sup>368</sup>.

the 8th Dec., 1718, I did assign and settover certain leasehold tenements or estates, etc., unto Edmund Cording, of Exton, and George Langdon, of Winsford, in trust for the several uses, ends, intents, etc., therein mentioned. I give etc., unto my husband's granddaughter, Joane Siderfin, ten pounds. To my cozen, Anne Hobbs, the younger, of Winsford, 40s. To Edward Barnes, the younger of Exton, 10s. All the rest residue and remainder of my said leasehold tenements or estates and all other goods, etc., etc., unto Edmund Cording, the younger (son of aforesaid Ed Cording) to and for his own proper use for ever. And I do make him, the said Ed Cording the ye sole Executor. Will dated 7th January, 1729.<sup>369</sup>

Mary, in the will abstract above, mentions that her husband has a granddaughter Joane. At Wootton Courtney there are two baptisms for parents John Siderfin junior and Joan (unknown)<sup>370</sup>. These two children belong to John 8 (John 7, John 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) whose existence in the Wootton Courtney Parish Registers and the mention in the will of his step mother have resulted in his being added as a child of John 7 (John 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). I postulate that John 6 Siderfin married to Mary Chapman had an older son named John (John and Mary were married in 1683 and Robert was born in 1688) who married and had two daughters (mother Joan) although no further record is found for this John except for the mention of his daughter in his step-mother's will.

46. Christian Worth was born circa 1682/83 or before 19 Nov 1689<sup>371</sup>. She was under 21 years of age in 1689. Christian married John Bradford 20 Feb 1706 at Luccombe or Luckham<sup>372</sup>, Somerset.

47. Susanna Worth was born before 1689<sup>373</sup>. Susanna married Robert Cutcliffe 12 Jan 1713 in Luccombe or Luckham<sup>374</sup>.

48. Mary Worth was born before 1689<sup>375</sup>.

<sup>369</sup> I was unable to locate this will abstract. Possibly attached to the land records as she has left the bulk of her estate to Edmund Cording. There are four entries on the Somerset Archives but I did not delve into them; a project for the future perhaps part of his Research Fonds in the Devon Record Office. Included in the will set is the will of Thomasine Siderfin, widow. Interesting looking at this as the will is mentioned a couple of times for Thomasine but it would appear that for reasons of his own James Sanders did not include some of the wills in the Research Fonds or perhaps the Fonds has not included every item in the recitation, just a thought I have had. I believe I will leave a thorough look at the Fonds to someone much closer to the Record Office in Devon than I am!<sup>397</sup> Another reason for choosing a Creative Commons License as work can begin very soon on a revision of my own text if deemed necessary and I have no complaint with that.

61. Thomas Darch.

62. Robert Darch.

A few items from James Sanders Book which refer to the Darch family follow<sup>419</sup>. "This Robert Darch, a Presbyterian minister at Bishop's Hull, near Taunton, was the second of four brothers, nephews of Robert 5 Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). His eldest brother, Thomas 5 (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) lived and owned land in Luxborough, where Robert Darch died in August, 1734. There is an inscription on the floor of Luxborough Church recording his death and that of his widow, Sarah, who is described as "a father to the poor and eminent for the practice of virtue and true religion." Two other brothers, James and Philip, the latter of whom seems to have been also a Presbyterian minister, are referred to as 'my nephews' in Siderfin's will and given legacies of £100 each. The Darch family had long been resident in Luxborough; in 1598 a James Darch of Luxborough, was joint plaintiff in a lawsuit concerning Exmoor with Thomas Webber, the deputy forester.<sup>420</sup>

"After Siderfin's death his interest in Exmoor Forest (See Appendix 5), probably by some arrangement among the creditors, became divided between two persons, the principal of whom was this Robert Darch. In the rental of the crown lands compiled in 1734 the tenants of Exmoor Forest are named as "Robert Darch and another" and from the fact that Darch purchased the tithes from the Cressets in 1723 we may infer with tolerable certainty that he was then in possession of an interest in the Forest itself. 'Another' was presumably the John Hill who 'passed and allowed' before two witnesses, the accounts of the deputy forester, which were furnished to Darch's widow and son in 1737 and 1743 respectively. Very likely he was a grandson of Boevey's deputy forester who lived at Newland in Withpool in 1678. A third John Hill appears as owner of Newland and Higher Lanacre in 1819. From the terms of Darch's will, combined with the absence from these accounts of any rent for Simonsbath Farm, it seems that this belonged solely to Darch, and that Hill had a half share in the forest only, exclusive of the farm. However this may have been, Darch had the predominant interest as sole owner of the tithes besides his share of the forest.<sup>421</sup>

“Darch died on the 31st January, 1737. Among the pamphlets enumerated in Mr. E. Green's Bibliotheca Somersensis appear the following: "Grove, Henry .... A funeral sermon occasioned by the death of the late reverend Mr. Robert Darch, of Hill Bishops, in the County of Somerset, who departed this life Jan. 31st, 1737, aetat 65." From another entry in the same work we gather that at the funeral of Robert Siderfin's third wife, Darch himself had entertained the mourners with a discourse considered worthy of printing: "Darch, Robert (Hill-bishops). A sermon preach'd at the funeral of Mrs. Anne, the wife of Robert 5 Siderfin, Esq., (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) one of her Majesties justices of the peace for the County of Somerset, at Timberscombe, May 13th, 1708." <sup>422</sup>

65. Robert 8 Siderfin (Robert 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born in 1689 in East Lynch, Somerset, England<sup>423</sup> and was buried on 28 Jan 1714 in Selworthy<sup>424</sup>, Somerset, England.

Robert 8 (Robert 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) married Joanna Kittener on 25 Apr 1713 in Wootton Courtney<sup>425</sup>, Somerset, England.

The father of this Robert Siderfin married to Joanna Kittener at East Lynch was Robert 7 Siderfin (Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) married to Elizabeth (I agree with James Sanders that likely her surname is Blackford) as shown by the Brass Monument at Selworthy Parish Church for Robert 8<sup>426</sup> and included a memorial to Walter 8 Siderfin. This is a change from the Pedigree Chart which James Sanders created in which he had this Robert 8 (Robert 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) as a son of John Siderfin of Wootton Courtney as shown on James Sander's Pedigree Chart (see Figure 13) whose father was Robert 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) of the Robert-Line rather than the William-Line.

The property at East Linch and Timberscombe traditionally in this Siderfin family belonged to the William-Line (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). In the land records, located in the Somerset Archives Robert 5 (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and his son Robert 6 (generally referred to as Robert Siderfin the elder and Robert Siderfin the younger), East Linch and Timberscombe are usually mentioned together for these two men.<sup>427</sup> William 4's son Robert Siderfin the elder/senior and William 4's grandson Robert Siderfin the younger/junior are found at Timberscombe both on the Protestation Return of 1641 and the Somerset Lay Subsidy of 1642. The sons of Robert 5 (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) are mentioned in their grandmother Christian (Webber) Siderfin's will written in 1644 and probated in 1648<sup>428</sup> namely Robert 6 and John 6 (and their sister Wilmot 6).

Robert 8 Siderfin (Robert 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) buried at Selworthy at 25 years of age in 1714 is memorialized with a brass memorial – “Here lyeth the body of Robert Siderfin son of Robert Siderfin Gent and Elizabeth his Wife Who departed this life the 20th day of Jan 1714 (Old Style) Aged 25 years. Here lyeth the body of Walter Siderfin who departed This Life the 21st day of Mar 1731 (old style) Aged 40 years.”<sup>429</sup> Although James Sanders is using the date 1715 for this Robert this is new style with 1714 being old style<sup>430</sup>. There are two other children on the Pedigree chart John Sanders created under John and Mary Siderfin.

The second child in this line of the Pedigree Chart of James Sanders (see Figure 15) was John married to Maria Winter and has been shown to be the same John as married to Mary (Chapman) shown as the father of Robert and Walter. The John married to Maria Winter should be removed from the line above as he is already corrected in the Seventh Generation Chapter to show that this John was in actuality the son of John 6 Siderfin who himself was mentioned in his grandmother Christian Webber's will as John 6 the son of Robert 5 (William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). The third child in this Pedigree Chart of James Sanders as shown on the chart above was Walter 8 Siderfin of Timberscombe b 1692 and died 1732 and married to Alice Quirke of Minehead in 1717 at Luxborough. Her will was probated in 1768 as shown on James Sander's Pedigree Chart above (the will of Alice (Quirke) Siderfin) in full below).

66. Walter 8 Siderfin (Robert 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born circa 1692 in Wootton Courtney, Somerset, England<sup>431</sup> and was buried on 21 Mar 1731 (old style) in Selworthy, Somerset, England<sup>432</sup>.

Walter married Alice Quirke 25 Jan 1717/18 at Luxborough Somerset, England<sup>433</sup>, groom was of Timberscombe and bride of Minehead. Alice was buried 18 Jul 1768 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>434</sup> aged 70.

Alice Siderfin left a will which may prove interesting to some as one of her sisters married into the Question family but it is not particularly helpful with the Siderfin family other than reinforcing that it was she who married Walter Siderfin. Although I have included this will of Alice Siderfin below it is more of interest to the Question and Quirke families.

<sup>435</sup> John Short married Susannah Question 13 Apr 1732 at Carhampton, Somerset. Susannah Question was the daughter of John Question and Mary Quirke. John Question was a brother to Elizabeth Question married to Robert Siderfin. Hence the presence of the forename Augustine in the children since John Question (and Elizabeth) were the children of Augustine Question (See Appendix 6, will of Augustine Question)

<sup>436</sup> The author, Elizabeth (Blake) Kipp, I was somewhat surprised that James Sanders did not offer any opinion in his writings at this point but can only surmise that he did not see the connection especially as he named the wife of Robert Siderfin as Elizabeth Blackford when it was Elizabeth Question (See Appendix 6, will of her father Augustine Siderfin)

Robert 8 and Walter 8 are sons of Robert 7 Siderfin (Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) in the William-Line. I am going with James Sanders on the idea that Robert (buried 20 Jan 1714 (old style) at Selworthy) and Walter (buried 14 Mar 1731 (old style), Selworthy) are siblings and sons of Robert and Elizabeth Siderfin as stated on the Brass Memorial in Selworthy Church. William's wife Christian (Webber) Siderfin (parents of Robert Siderfin the elder (b c 1630s) in her will does mention that Robert's children were: Robert, Wilmot and John. As a further postulation I would support James Sanders that Elizabeth Blackford did marry into the Siderfin family and that the Elizabeth married to Robert and parents of the Robert buried 20 Jan 1714 (old style) at Selworthy (listed on the brass memorial mentioned above) was Elizabeth Blackford<sup>437, 438</sup>.

He is possibly the Robert Syderfin buried at Selworthy, Somerset, England 7 Aug 1742<sup>440</sup>. He is not mentioned in his mother's will of 1768 (see above will of Alice Siderfin).

67. Robartt 8 Siderfin (William 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 22 Feb 1693 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>441</sup>. No further information located.

68. Mary 8 Siderfin (William 7, Robert 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was born in 1698, was christened on 1 Sep 1698 in Minehead, Somerset, England, and died on 24 Sep 1698 in Minehead, Somerset, England<sup>442</sup>.

69. John 8 Siderfin (John 7, John 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1), born circa 1683-1687 and this individual has been postulated based on the various documents mentioned namely the Marriage Contract between John 7 Siderfin and Mary Chapman, the baptism of the children (below) as the children of John Junior and Joan, and the mention in the will of Mary Siderfin (Maria (Winter) Siderfin) that her husband John 7's grand daughter was Joane Siderfin).<sup>443</sup>

John married Joan (unknown).

<sup>437</sup> The will of Richard Blackford does mention his cousin Robert Siderfin – “Richard Blackford, of Dunster, Somerset (one of the King's Masters Extraordinary in the Court of Chancery.) Will dated Jan. 8th 1688 - Proved April 4th, 1689. Mentions my cousin Robert Siderfin - my cousin John Quirch” found in Abstracts of Somerset Wills, Reverend Frederick Brown, Series 4, page 78).

<sup>438</sup> I have not to date found any other relationship between the Blackford family and the Siderfin family so does seem the most obvious and the time frame is one hundred years earlier when James Sanders is writing his book so closer to the event. Richard Blackford does mention his cousin John Quirch as well but the children of Mary (Coffin) Quirke were all daughters and the name of her husband is not known to me. So that connection does not appear to be particularly close

Children from this marriage were:

70. Robert 8 Siderfin (John 7, John 6, Robert 5, William 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) was christened on 15 Dec 1688 in Selworthy Somerset, England<sup>446</sup>. His father was named as John Junior on the baptismal record.

Possibly one of the more difficult sections to do in this book was proving the existence of John 8 Siderfin. Finding the will abstract for John 7's second wife Maria Winter did initially prove to be the stepping stone back in time as she mentioned her husband's granddaughter and from there I searched out the various documents that concerned this couple.

John Siderfin, of Cutcombe, Cordwainer left his will dated 28th April 1761. He mentioned his wife Joan Siderfin, sole executrix. He also mentioned all his children although not by name in the abstract that James Sanders added to his book. This original will was destroyed in the bombing of the Devon Record Office unfortunately.<sup>456</sup> Looking at the children for this couple, five of them died as very young children and one at ten years of age. The three surviving children Mary (never married), Joan married Thomas Wheddon and John married Joan Adams. When he wrote his will 28 April 1761, there were still four children living with Betty dying at ten years of age<sup>457</sup>.

Joan also left a will dated 1st September 1792 and the abstract from James Sanders book follows<sup>458</sup>:

Joan Siderfin , of Cutcombe, widow. Will dated 1st September, 1792. To daughter, Joan Wheddon, dwelling house, gardens and field of ground, known by name of Gammons in parish of Cutcombe, for life, then to daughter Mary Siderfin. To son John all the Meadows known by name of Ven. Meadows right, title and interest in and yet to come in my said meadows, situate at Selworthy. Also to son John, an estate called Lower Knowle in Selworthy after the death of his uncle, Robert Siderfin. Grandson Thomas Greenslade<sup>459</sup>. Two daughters and daughter-in-law

<sup>511</sup> Although this record exists in the original Timberscombe fiche and it does read that Joan Siderfin daughter of Robert and Joan was baptized; I could not locate a marriage in this fiche for a Robert and Joan. This would appear to be the only Robert that would be eligible to be the father but his baptism in 1718 would have had to be a delayed baptism as one would anticipate he might be 18 or more when he married. I have included it but I am in doubt. Author, Elizabeth Kipp

This would appear to be the only Robert that would be eligible to be the father but his baptism in 1718 would have had to be a delayed baptism as one would anticipate he might be 18 or more when he married. I have included it but I am in doubt. Author, Elizabeth (Blake) Kipp

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Elizabeth married John Pincombe on 9 Jan 1834 in Bishops Nympton, Devon, England (Banns)<sup>886</sup>. The witnesses to this wedding were Thomas Rew (Elizabeth's brother) and Robert Nurcombe (Elizabeth's first cousin). One is left with the thought that this family coming down from Robert Siderfin and Grace (Kent) Siderfin were a close family. Thomas, the youngest son, married away from the family in Bristol and then went to Derbyshire. I never knew what happened to Thomas until I chanced to meet my correspondent who has assisted me with the Thomas generations in this book<sup>887</sup>. John was born on 15 Apr 1808 in Bishops Nympton, Devon, England, was christened on 5 Jul 1808 in Bishops Nympton, Devon, England, died on 3 Jun 1894 in Middlesex County, Ontario, Canada, aged 86, and was buried on 7 Jun 1894 in Lambeth, Middlesex, Ontario, Canada. Gravestone at Trinity Anglican Church, Lambeth, Ontario, Canada.

John and Elizabeth and their five children emigrated from Plymouth, Devon on the Bark Elizabeth 20 Nov 1850 and arrived on 7 Jan 1851 in the Port of New York, USA. Why did they come? An interesting court case I rather think prompted them to move on to Canada. John's uncles wanted a piece of property which their eldest brother John had left to his child (unfortunately John had not married the mother but still acknowledged his child and left her a small piece of property). They hid his will (which now has long since been probated) and likely with the help of her husband she took it to court (because she knew of the legacy) and won in the early 1840s (certainly a credit to the legal system that protected her). I think there is likely always a reason that people do emigrate (and perhaps sometimes it is just an itchy foot!). John's father Robert had died in 1827 and any property that he did not own personally moved to his brothers by copyhold so the eight children of Robert did have to make a living and Robert had prepared for that having his sons train in various disciplines. Both John and his older brother Robert were left the property that their father owned but Robert sold the property and went to America. The only daughter married a year after the death of her father so was perhaps already arranged. Passage of property was a strange thing sometimes and in John's case he also inherited property as a young man that always went to a son named John Pincombe in the family and it would appear that his eldest uncle John had already passed that property to him before he died as John was living at Lower Gatcombe near Molland when they decided to sell that property and come to Canada in 1850.<sup>890</sup> I visited Bishops Nympton with my husband and my Blake cousin and his wife in 2008. It was interesting to be in a village that my mother had memories which she shared with me that her father had passed to her from his father and grandparents.

Children from this marriage were:

<sup>890</sup> All of this happened long ago but it does seem appropriate to mention as this entire family of seven children (eight were born but one died in his teenage years) left Bishops Nympton area (the children of Robert Pincombe) to live elsewhere in England and around the world.

<sup>901</sup> At Ancestry DNA my siblings (three plus myself tested) have some of our strongest matches (Siderfin line) with the descendants of Charlotte Rew. Because their Grandmother Charlotte (Rew) Griffith was a twin to my great grandmother Elizabeth (Rew) Pincombe our matches become much closer since these two women shared the exact same DNA. Since Elizabeth (Rew) Pincombe's descendants have tested in large numbers in the various databases this has led to quite interesting discoveries with DNA.

<sup>968</sup> Priest, Derby St Alkmund Parish Registers, “Baptized Thomas Son of Thomas and Siderfin Kent” a likely error on the part of the recorder. The mother of Thomas (father of this Thomas being baptized) was Grace (Kent) Siderfin and perhaps in the discussion the priest accidentally mixed up the wife of Thomas (Sibble (Williams) Siderfin) with the mother of Thomas father to the infant). ## The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Interesting Autosomal DNA Results

Entering into the adventure of Surname Studies, I arrived perhaps a little differently than others. Although my husband Edward was deeply involved in genealogy as long as I knew him (we were married 54.5 years) I was never actually interested in genealogy. I could not see how one would really trace people based only on Parish Registers, Census and the like. I needed more proof that I was actually related to people. When my third cousin George DeKay asked me to write a Profile for my Pincombe Family in Westminster Township, Middlesex County, Ontario, Canada to be included in the History books he was editing for Westminster and Delaware Townships, I said I do not think I could take that on. He tried again a little later and a few more pushing statements. I decided to take it on and took 42 courses at the National Institute for Genealogical Studies which was then at St Michaels part of the University of Toronto and it was online. Great news, love online things. That was the summer of 2003 and the Profile was due the summer of 2005. Without being too wordy, I accomplished both – The Profile and my Professional Learning Certificate in Genealogical Studies (PLCGS); the first in 2005 and the second in 2007.

I was such a newbie though and it showed as I naively worked my way through myriads of data, experienced serendipity finding my 2x great grandmother Elizabeth (Rew) Pincombe with her siblings at Wootton Courtney on the 1841 census as she was missing from the Molland Census where her husband and two of their three children were located. But that isn't a story for the Siderfin book just interesting how I gradually evolved from being an onlooker to being an active participant in this backwards journey through time to find one's ancestors although I call it Surname Studies as I have little interest in Genealogy which is more of a cousin finding study.

But definitely it was the advent of DNA into the life of Surname Studies initially as y-DNA studies and mtDNA studies and finally autosomal DNA studies took their appropriate place in the world of Surname Studies and Genealogy since these three types of DNA are free standing ways to look at families. I first tested in 2006 at Sorenson Research and the results were most interesting but have nothing to do with the Siderfin family as this was mitochondrial DNA inherited strictly down the female line. I did not at that time know anyone with the Siderfin surname tracing back to our mutual line in West Somerset nor do I now so that study does not exist except as a name on the FT DNA website which I did set up when I was doing the one-name study for Siderfin back in 2007. But autosomal has proven to be an interesting way to look at DNA and has pretty much dominated the DNA studies since 2014 although one continues to utilize yDNA for its value as a straight line male search back into time and mtDNA as a straight line female search back into time. Y-DNA studies are perhaps easier as the surname doesn't change in general whereas the female surname changed with every marriage that occurred in a generation making this research rather difficult. But autosomal is dependent only on sharing a common ancestor and surprisingly 2nd and greater cousins (3rd especially) offer a huge insight into how we inherited our autosomal DNA. As we, my six siblings and I, do not have any first cousins although we do have second cousins, the lack of first cousins does not heavily affect the acquisition of knowledge as five of the seven siblings (myself included) have tested and when these results are all put together and examined in DNA Painter one discovers that only a very short piece of one chromosome is not completely covered except by one of the siblings of our inheritance from our grandparents although the inheritance does end up being known just because of the sheer number of siblings testing and subsequent matching with known cousins.

My siblings and myself have tested at all the common testing sites – 23 and Me, Ancestry, FT DNA, Living DNA, and My Heritage. It is our gift to the generations that follow to have this material at their disposal. As it turns out one of my brothers and myself are the least alike and so I tested this brother and myself at every one of the testing sites except My Heritage where only I have tested and the rest have tested at many or most of the same so a lot of data available to me and the plus, a lot of matches are available.

Siderfin was no exception; on Ancestry alone, of the four siblings tested, one has 33 Siderfin matches in common, one has 32 Siderfin matches in common, one has 25 Siderfin matches in common and, myself, I have 13 matches in common. Many of these matches are with our Pincombe cousins (we share 3x great grandmother Elizabeth (Siderfin) Rew ) but also with descendants of the siblings of our 2x great grandmother Elizabeth (Rew) Pincombe with the bonus that she had a twin sister Charlotte. These matches are much closer simply because of the twin effect. Going back to Elizabeth (Siderfin) Rew herself and matches with her first cousins is more difficult since the most recent common ancestors are Robert Siderfin and Grace (Kent) Siderfin our 4x great grandparents and so these are fifth cousins and one must be careful to ensure that we do not have other matching possibilities with these matches. In some cases these matches are surprisingly large (30 to 60 centimorgans on Ancestry which does use a program TIMBER to eliminate atDNA shared in common because of ethnicity) and I continue to sort through these results. I will share some of that material with the readers in this chapter.

Having now prepared a large flat file in Excel looking at every chromosome I can now report back to the readers that I do not yet have sufficient material to name lengths as passed in common from a Siderfin ancestor down through the lines. That will come likely but for the moment I am unable to do that.

However, recent matches on Ancestry have revealed descendants of Thomas (brother to Elizabeth (Siderfin) Rew) and my siblings and myself do have sufficiently sized matches for comparison and these range between 30 centimorgans and 60 centimorgans. This is a sizeable match for fifth cousins and not expected actually. Looking at the Shared cM Project (Version 4.0) the average shared by fifth cousins is 25 cM with a range from 0 to 117.

Looking at the two cousins:

First individual is descendant of Charles Colwell and Hannah Elizabeth Siderfin (+ 242 F v. Hannah [Ann] Elizabeth 11 Siderfin (Joseph 10, Thomas 9, Robert 8, Augustine 7, Robert 6, John 5, Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1). The descendant is five steps from Thomas 9 Siderfin son of Robert 8 Siderfin and Grace Kent. My siblings and I are also five steps from Elizabeth 9 Siderfin (sister to Thomas). Since the most recent common ancestor (MRCA) pair is Robert Siderfin and Grace Kent (our mutual 4x great grandparents we are exactly fifth cousins). I did write to this individual to see if he was interested in taking his results from Ancestry into one of the companies where we could share data. We will see.

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Second individual is descendant of Henry 10 Siderfin (Thomas 9, Robert 8, Augustine 7, Robert 6, John 5, Robert 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) and Elizabeth Johnson. The descendant is five steps from Thomas 9 Siderfin son of Robert 8 Siderfin and Grace Kent. Hence this individual is also a fifth cousin but is the larger match of the two individuals. I also wrote to this individual who was actually born on the African continent so one never knows where one's cousins are!

My purpose in adding this particular chapter was to show the relationship between Thomas' descendants and his siblings (only Elizabeth in the case of these two matches) since Thomas moved to Derbyshire in the late 1700s early 1800s and disappeared from view so to speak. It simply brings all the descendants together in the one book. There are numerous matches with descendants of Elizabeth Siderfin's other siblings in the databases.

At some point in the future I will do some anonymous charting on the many matches along with some genealogy charts but adding them to this book will make it too large as a suitable download from my website. So an addendum is promised in the future as I work away on other projects.

Appendix 1

Origin of the Siderfin Name

The Siderfin family appear to have been either Dutch or Italian merchants, who early settled at Croydon, in the parish of Timberscombe.<sup>2823</sup>

Whilst investigating the Siderfin surname I was able to look at a couple of Jewish surname books and did find the Siderfin name included and it was said to be initially Italian.

Unfortunately that was early in my days of surname research and I did not record the name of the book or any other details. It was a sort of chance happening at one of the annual meetings of the Ontario Genealogical Society.

Appendix 2

James Sanders book is an excellent compilation of information at various times in the life of the Siderfin Family of West Somerset. Appendix 2 will include the details collected by him to prove that the Siderfin family were in the Luxborough area in the 1500s. Text in bold in the appendices is my writing.

Proof of occupancy by the Siderfin Family in Luxborough area (Appendix 2 is taken directly from the original text of James Sanders book “The Siderfin Family of West Somerset” published in 1912 and including pages 13 – 16. I have on occasion changed the flow of the text to suit my reason for creating each appendix; I trust that my readers will bear with me in this regard. The original copy of James Sanders book (photographed by me) will be available to anyone requesting it (kippeeb@rogers.com). Thank you for your patience (and the bolded text is mine)<sup>2824</sup>. The text is also available on Internet Archive: <https://archive.org/details/historyofsiderfi00sand> .

Calendar of Patent Rolls, 2 Jan 1546, 37 Henry VIII

[extracted text begins] 1546. On the 2nd of January, 37 Henry VIII, 1546, John Wyndham, Esqr., by bargain and sale conveyed to Wm. Sytffin<sup>2825</sup> messuages and Landes at Donyford in St. Deacons<sup>2826</sup>, and by bargain and sale dated the 6th of the same month in the same year John Wyndham conveyed to Wm. Sittffyn messuages and Lands at Donyford in St. Deacons.

This section appears to be a little muddled in the original text as it runs into the next section (see Figure 6) but it does show the presence of the Siderfin family in this time period. The intent of this section and the one following is to prove that the Siderfin family was on this one particular piece of land in 1546.

Thus shewing they lived at Luxborough prior to this date. This William Setherfin was proceeded against in Court of Requests. (See Hancock's Minehead<sup>2832</sup>, page 115.)

After the dissolution of the abbey of Bruton<sup>2833</sup>, and the forfeiture of its possessions, the advowson of Minehead seems to have led a shuttle-cock kind of existence. From the dissolution of the Abbey, up till 1551, the rectory was held by the king, but in this latter year, according to the papers quoted below, Edward (VI<sup>2834</sup>) granted it to John Belmayne, Esquire. This good gentleman, however, found when he proceeded to take possession that the king's right to a portion of the temporalities was disputed; and that William Setherfen of Cutcombe and Christian Setherfen, widow, and certain of their children held various lands and tenements belonging to the parsonage of Minehead in Cutcombe and Luxborough, and the tithes thereof under a lease to John Syderfen from the last abbot of Bruton. Belmayne sought redress as follows:

A search on the National Archives of the United Kingdom led to the discovery that the Court of Requests boxes (400 were mentioned) have not yet been listed in the Discovery Catalogue. James Sanders has done a good job of proving that the Siderfin family were associated with Luxborough, Cutcombe and Minehead before 1548 and this document would have added greatly to that knowledge. I do not see myself going to National Archives of the United Kingdom (Kew) to look at this document but hopefully in the future another Siderfin descendant may do so.<sup>2835</sup>

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

In most Humble wyse shewyth and complayneth unto your Highness John Belmayne, Esq., that whereas your Majesty was seised in your demesne as of fee of the parsonage of Mynehedd and Cutcombe with the rights and appurts in co. Somerset late parcel of the possessions of the late monastery of Brewton in co. Somerset: and so seised by Letter Patent dated 31 March in the 5th year of your reign<sup>2836</sup> (1551) your Highness granted and to farm let to plt<sup>2837</sup>. The said parsonage with all the houses, buildings, barns, tithes, rents, reversions, etc. in Mynehedd and Cutcombe to the said parsonage belonging great trees and woods growing upon any part of the said premises only excepted to hold to plt.<sup>2838</sup> for 21 years paying yearly to your Majesty for the same £27 12s 4d.

Now so it is that divers charters and evidences, and also certain counterfeit writings and indentures of no force in the law supposed to have been made by the late Abott of Brewton as well to William Setherfen of Cutcombe and Christian Setherfen widow as to certain of the children of the said William and Christian have come into the hands of the said William and Christian who by colour thereof not only claim certain lands and tenements parcel of the said parsonage in certain hamlets called Cutcombe and Luxborough and to all the tithes there being parcel of the said parsonage of Minehead, but have also unjustly entered into the said lands and tenements taken the tithes and deforced plt.<sup>2839</sup> from the same to his great loss, so that he will be unable to pay the said rent to your Majesty unless remedy be made. As the reversion of the said parsonage belongs to your Highness great prejudice and disinheritance may ensue for want of the said evidence, and by the act examining and lack of the trial of the truth of such pretended writings and indentures of Leases and other conveyances as the said William and Christian or their children claim by, to be had now whilst it is known that they are untrue.

And whereas many of the witnesses who know the truth are very old and impotent persons not able to travel and not likely to live long, by whose death it might happen that the truth concerning the premises could not be tried: It may therefore please your Majesty to grant plt.<sup>2840</sup> your Letters of Commission under the Privy Seal to be directed to certain men of worship inhabiting the parts there near adjoining, giving them authority to call witnesses and examine them, and then to certify to the Court of Requests what has been done in the matter.

The Answer of William Sitherfyn to the Bill of Complaint of John Belmayne Deft.<sup>2841</sup>. Says that long before the King had anything in the said rectory and parsonage of Cutcombe, William Bishop of Maior and late Abbot of Bruton, in co. Somerset, was therefore seised in his demesne as of fee as in the right of the late Monastery of Bruton: and so seised, with the assent of the Convent of the said Monastery, by good conveyance in the law, granted and to farm let to deft.<sup>2842</sup>, certain lands and tenements in Luxborough in the tenure of John Sytherphyn, father of deft.<sup>2843</sup>, being parcel of the parsonage of Cutcombe, together with all the fruits and tithes of the corn of Lukkesbrough: to hold to deft.<sup>2844</sup> for his life, by force, whereof deft.<sup>2845</sup> is seized of the same in his demesne as of freehold and has taken the tithes thereof. Deft.<sup>2846</sup> also keeps all the charters, evidences, etc., concerning his estate and title in and to the premises.

Plt.<sup>2847</sup> in his replication, says that the “pretensed” lease supposed to have been made by the said John Abbot of Bruton is insufficient in the law. The above bill is endorsed: “At Grenewiche, 14 May, 7 Edw. VI (1553). A writ to be directed to the said William Setherfyn and Christian Setherfyn personally to appear at Westminster in the Octaves of Holy Trinity next to make answer.

This man must have had a pretty good experience in Law, but no residence mentioned.

Appendix 3

James Sanders text on the land dealings involving the Siderfin and Foster families.

Savage<sup>2858</sup>'s "Hundred of Carhampton", contains the following: - "In the reign of Queen Elizabeth<sup>2859</sup> there were some proceedings in Chancery in which James Foster was plaintiff, and Robert Siderfinne defendant, respecting a lease of Land parcel of the Manor of Luxborough of which Manor, John Foster, the plaintiff's grandfather was Lord and after him James Foster the plaintiff's Father who demised the said Land to William Sidervin deceased<sup>2860, 2861</sup>.

Kyne;<sup>90</sup> both of them being manors within this parish, and so denominated from their ancient owners.

It is probable that the Maurice de Luxborough above-mentioned had a son who might be the same person with William de Lorkeburgh, who, in the twenty-eighth of Edward I. (1300) was returned by the sheriff of Somerset and Dorset as holding lands or rents, either in capite or otherwise, to the amount of £40 yearly value and upwards, and as such was summoned to perform military service against the Scots, and to attend the muster at Carlisle on the 24th of June.<sup>91</sup>

All Sir T. B. Lethbridge's property in this parish and neighbourhood has been lately purchased by the trustees of — Beach, esq., a young gentleman of Staffordshire, at present under age.

In 1790, the Rev. Chancellor Nutcombe<sup>92</sup> held a manor in Luxborough, which after his death passed to the family of Worth,<sup>93</sup> who sold it to the late Sir John Lethbridge, bart.

In the reign of Queen Elizabeth there were some <sup>92</sup> The family of Nutcombe can be traced in Devonshire to the reign of Richard II. Richard Nutcombe, esq. the last heir male, died in 1736. The Rev. Nutcombe Quicke, late chancellor of the diocese of Exeter, took the name of Nutcombe by act of parliament in 1792, and died in 1809, without issue male.—Lysons' Devon, part I. p. 208.

The family of Quicke, of Newton St. Cyres, in Devonshire, were originally of Somersetshire. They bear Sable, a chevron vair, Or and Sable, between three griffins' heads, erased, of the second.—Crest, a demi-antelope, Argent, armed, attired, tufted, and maned, Gules, collared, Sable, lined, Or.

MANOR OF LANGHAM.

The manor of Langham is thus described in Domesday Book :—

“Three soldiers (milites) of William de Mohun hold LANGEHAM. Three Thaners held it in parage, (that is, in equal parts) in the time of King Edward, when it was assessed to the geld for one hide. The arable land is sufficient for six ploughs. There are in demesne three ploughs, with one bondman; and five villans and eight bordars have three ploughs and a half. There is a mill, which renders three shillings; four acres of meadow, sixty acres of pasture, and thirty-six acres of wood. It was and is worth thirty shillings.”<sup>95</sup>

The Exeter Domesday adds that the three soldiers held half a hide and one ferding, and three ploughs in demesne; and the villan tenants the other land. The

as the reign of Henry III. They bear for their arms, Ermine, an eagle displayed with two necks, Sable.—Crest, an arm erect, vested and gloved, Ermines, holding an eagle's leg couped at the thigh, Or.

<sup>2862</sup> Savage, James, Ibid, pages 259 260; Queen Elizabeth I reigned from 1558 – 1603, the discussion for the Chancery mentions that the document is without date. Fortunately, the document mentions Sir Thomas Bromleye knight Lord Chauncellor of England and he occupied this position until 11 Apr 1587 thus giving us a date range for this document between 1558 to 1587. It is known that William Sidervin, his father died in or before 1572 and his mother by 1579. That would appear to date this proceedings between 1579 and 1587.

<sup>2863</sup> Figure 4 has a date for this marriage between William Sidervin and Wilmot Foster of 1534. One of the several Chancery Proceedings which James Sanders transcribed and entered into the published account of "History of the Siderfin Family of West Somerset" namely Elizabeth, F. 1. 8 does state that John Foster in order to advance the marriage of his daughter Wilmothe (Wilmot) Indented this tenement about which the Chancery Proceedings are being established for a sixty year period from the date of indention. It is also stated in the Chancery Proceedings. Elizabeth F.3.54 that John Foster (father of Wilmot) has been dead for thirty two years at the time of this indenture. The Chancery Proceedings took place between 1579 and 1587 giving a window for the death of John Foster between 1547 and 1552.

Sworn before Matthew Carew

The Answer of Robert Syterfen to the Bill of Complaint of James Foster Denies truth of bill. Says that John Foster, plaintiff's grandfather, was seised of the manor of Luxborough Eve; that he died about forty years ago; that James Foster, son of said John, "in consyderacion that One Willim Syterven father unto the Sayd nowe defendant shoulde Espouse and Take to wyffe One Wilmott foster daughter unto the Sayd John Foster," leased the tenement in question to the said William and Wilmot about 26 Henry VIII. [1534-5] for 60 years, as Wilmot's marriage portion<sup>2870</sup>. Denies the variance, submission and award, and the suits and heriot. "But he sayeth that one Alexander baker in the ryght of one Johan Foster wydowe who claymed the Sayd Mannour for term of her lyffe by force of A devyse made by one John Foster her husband Sonne and heir unto James Foster wrongfully for a Heriott Toke A Colte of the sayd William Sytervens, the Sayd Colt Beinge not Taken uppon the tenement but uppon A Common therunto adjoyninge." Wilmot, defendant's mother, died half a year since, leaving defendant as her sole executor. Witnesses named in the bill are well able to appear at the country assizes, and plaintiff has already taken suit against defendant at the common law. Prays to be dismissed with costs.

Appendix 4

Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1), the third son of Robert, was a local Justice of the Peace, and lived at South Wheddon. Finding references to South Wheddon at Kew proved to be interesting with John Foster having held land there in 1524. I could not find a reference to Thomas Siderfin holding land there in the 1600s. His son also Thomas Siderfin who left his will in 1678 does not mention South Wheddon either. But earlier in the discussion on land differences between William Foster and William Siderfin the Foster family had held land at Luxborough which later appears to be part of the Siderfin family holdings in the early 1600s.

Noted events in the life of Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) were:

One of the first items from the early days of Thomas Siderfin being Justice of the Peace following the beginning of the Commonwealth Period in England (1649 - 1660):

James Sanders writes: After 1641 the churchwardens no longer sign the registers, and on the expulsion of Mr. Knolles, the customary paid registrar seems to have taken them over. The following note occurs under the date 1653: "Bee it remembered that the 24th day of November, 1653, William Atwell, of Mynhede, was the sworn Register their according to the Act of Parliament in that case made and p[ro]vided. [Signed] Tho. Siderfin." <sup>2871</sup>

A lengthy section of James Sanders book talks about West Somerset and Appendix 1 of this revision is a collection under the title "West Somerset by Chadwyck Healey"

This section on East Harwood was added to show the status of Thomas 4 Siderfin Justice of the Peace (Robert 3, William 2, John 1), perhaps. The property would have passed to the eldest son of Thomas 4 namely Thomas 5 Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) of the Middle Temple (London, England) who died in 1681 heavily in debt and did not have a male heir. By 1688 the property [Croydon] was in the possession of Robert Siderfin (Thomas 4, Robert 3, William 2, John 1) (younger brother of Thomas).

Searching on Thomas Siderfin at Kew yielded 31 records with twenty of them being in the time period 1600 – 1699. One rather interesting one that I had not noted earlier was Siderfin's Estate Act (Reference: HL/PO/JO/10/1/523/1470) wherein the estate of Thomas 5 Siderfin, deceased, was to be sold for payment of debts 13 Dec 1699. This is perhaps referring to Thomas 5 Siderfin, son of Thomas 4 Siderfin and Johan and the will of Thomas 4 Siderfin appears above dated 1675. This Thomas is the third son of Robert Siderfinne and brother to William Siderfin who was married to Christian. Unfortunately this will has not survived. In the original book which James Sanders wrote he does have a picture of a copy of the seal which was used by Robert 5 Siderfin in 1700. More information on Robert Siderfin 5 in 1700 later.

James Sanders' information with respect to Thomas 4 Siderfin, JP.<sup>2874</sup>

This man evidently bore arms, as [t]his will is sealed with his crest and arms, "3 cups (covered)." (See Appendix 7) He gave to his son Thomas a tenement called Crodon (Crowden) (Croydon); to wife tenement in Alcombe and 12 acres in Alcombe Marsh; to son Robert pasture or meadow grounds called Loveleases, in parish of Mockeluy; to son Robert tenement called South Wheddon. He also edited Siderfin's Law Reports, 1657-1670.<sup>2875</sup>

It is recorded in the entries of marriages twenty-two were celebrated between 29th Sept., 1653, and 11th July, 1657, before Justices of Peace, according to form prescribed during the Commonwealth, nineteen of which were celebrated by Thomas Siderfin, two by George Luttrell, and one by Charles Stayings, of this form:

Appendix 5

I have added this entire section from James Sanders' as it does make an interesting read and provides a lot of information on the sons of Thomas 4 Siderfin who both filed for bankruptcy (Robert filing for his brother Thomas) then Darch (his nephew-in-law) filed for Robert in order to settle the estate. I have not footnoted these appendices they do not really add that much material to the Siderfin family but are simply interesting.

From MacDermot's Forest of Exmor

James Boevey of London, Merchant. James Boeve or Boevey, the first owner of Exmoor, was of Dutch extraction. His father, one Andrew Boeve of Courtrai in Flanders, was brought to England in 1573 at the age of seven by his parents who being Huguenots fled from the persecution of the Duke of Alva.

However, his appetite for litigation had not decreased with age, and the law officers of the Crown seem to have been ever ready to assist him. A few days before the landing of William of Orange at Tor Bay, we find the Attorney General lodging a bill in the Exchequer against Robert Siderfin, who in 1681 had succeeded his brother Thomas as lord of the Manor of Exton, Hawkridge and Withypool. It is to this bill that the extracts from the Rolls of the Exmoor Forest Court refer. The cause of the trouble was evidently that Siderfin had been impounding some of the forest sheep and cattle found on Hawkridge and Withypool Commons. Boevey having discovered that the foresters in Tudor times had laid claim to these commons as part of the forest, renewed his pretensions, not only as to Hawkridge and Withypool, but inferentially to all other commons, and further developed his theory of the Royal Manor. The action is ostensibly for the recovery of documents, which are alleged to be in Siderfin's possession, but it includes a claim to the commons, and this was the real object in view. That Siderfin had got hold of any of the forest records seems highly improbable.

After James Bovey's death, January, 1696, his widow, Mrs. Margaret Bovey, succeeded to his interest in Exmoor Forest under provisions of his will. Mrs. Boevey kept the forest for eight years, and on the 26th April, 1704, sold the residue of her term - fifteen years - to her husband's old adversary, Robert Siderfin of Croydon in Carhampton Parish, who had already acquired the reversionary lease for thirty one years granted to Lord Arundell, of Trecice, in December, 1678.

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

How he obtained this lease is not apparent; Lord Arundell had died in October, 1687, and his son John, the second baron, in June, 1698.

Robert Siderfin, who thus became entitled to Exmoor Forest for forty six years, to be exact, for a term ending on the 21st July, 1750, was the representative of a family which had long been settled in Luxborough, in November, 1645, and is described in the register as "ye sonne of Thomas Sidderfin," the latter was a justice of the peace during the time of the Commonwealth. Robert succeeded to the Croydon property and the Manors of Exton, Hawkridge and Withpool as well as South Quarme in 1681, under the will of his elder brother, Thomas Siderfin. He was a barrister by profession and Sheriff of Somerset in 1694. Whether he still owned all the property is a little doubtful in view of a private Act of Parliament which was passed in 1700, entitled "An Act for vesting the Manor of Exton and other lands in the County of Somerset, late the estate of Thomas Siderfin, Esquire, deceased, in trustees to be sold for payment of debts." We do not know what was done in pursuance of this Act. Robert Siderfin certainly held Croydon till his death, and perhaps Hawkridge and Withypool too. If the lord of these manors was once again after an interval of more than four centuries forester of Exmoor, Richard de Plessy, who died in 1289, having been the last to hold them with the forestership.

In 1706 we find the new forester following the example of his predecessor by going to law with some of his neighbours. It seems that the right on the forest claimed by the suitors at large, or borderers, were not generally recognized even at this time; so with a view to settling the question Siderfin filed his bill in the Exchequer in Michaelmas term, 1706, against the following persons: John and Lewis Hatche of South Molton, Nicholas, George and William Shapland, William and George Barrow, John and Daniel Smith and William Kingdon all of North Molton; John Mogeridge of Molland and David Bale of Linton.

In this he shows his title to "a large tract of land heretofore the Forest and Chace of Exmore" under letters patent of the 15th January, 12 Charles II. (1661), whereby the same was leased to James, Marquis of Ormond, and his assigns for 31 years in reversion.

From these pleadings we see that at this period Exmoor was regarded merely in its aspect of a great sheep pasture, and that the forest and forestal rights were in danger of being forgotten by the forester himself, who speaks of it as "a large tract of land heretofore the Forest or Chace of Exmore." while the defendants do not believe it to be a forest at all and doubt whether it ever was one. It is pretty evident that during the last half century Mr. Boevey had only concerned himself with the revenue-producing possibilities of his property, and had allowed the rights over the deer claimed by his predecessors to lapse. From his statement that the prices for agistment had been usually if not always the same, Siderfin was evidently ignorant of the fact that they had been fixed by Boevey in 1655, and that he could alter them if so minded. This ignorance seems to have been shared by all the succeeding foresters. The defendants pervert the truth very conveniently in their answer by omitting to mention that the right of pasture in the forest, confirmed to the lord and tenants of North Molton by the decree they quote, was limited to the time between sunrise and sunset, and that they had therefore no right to leave their sheep in the forest at night, which fact, of course, made a considerable difference to the value of their right of common. The defendants who lived in Molland and Lynton did not put in any answers to the bill, so we do not hear whether they claimed the same right as the North Molton men, and if so, on what grounds. Siderfin does not appear to have proceeded with the action. After this time all the borderers with one or two exceptions seem to have been treated alike, paying half the rates which strangers paid; at least this was the case in 1736 and subsequently.

In 1719 Mr. Siderfin had some trouble with one John Dennicombe, a recently evicted tenant of Simonsbath Farm, who brought an action against him in Chancery. From the pleadings we learn that in 1702 Mr. William Smith, "agent to Madam Bovey," had let the farm, then about to become vacant, to Dennicombe at a yearly rent of £9. This seems by the way a very low figure; probably it was difficult to get a tenant at all owing to the loneliness of the place. Later on the rent was generally £35 a year. In May, 1704, Dennicombe had taken the farm from a new forester on a five years' repairing agreement, and had given him a bond for £500 to observe its conditions. "During the term the premises fell into very great decay and became ruinous for want of repair."

Siderfin gave the tenant notice to repair, but the latter said he was too poor to lay out the money and asked his landlord to do the repairs, promising to repay him. So in 1706 the latter spent over £20 and "new covered and tiled a barn at a cost of over £10."

After the five years were up Dennicombe was allowed to remain as a yearly tenant till 1717, when he was given notice to quit. "About Lady-day, 1718, the Plaintiff's wife came to the defendant at his dwelling at Croyden and asked him to let them remain in part of the dwellinghouse till Midsomer, promising to deliver up possession of the other part and also of all the land except the garden forthwith, and of the rest of the house and the garden at Midsomer." To this Siderfin consented, but when 'Midsomer' came Dennicombe refused to go, whereupon the former "caused your Orator to be arrested on the Bond, and for want of special bail carried to Ivelchester Goal where he still remaineth." This was the usual method of treating debtors in those days. ' At the winter assizes in Hillary Term last' (1719) Siderfin brought an action for ejection, and according to the plaintiff, "taking advantage of your Orator's poverity and imprisonment snapt a judgement." Accordingly the bailiffs of the Sheriff of Somerset turned out the rest of the Dennicombe family out upon the moor on the 22nd April 1719, and duly gave possession of Simonsbath House to Mr. Siderfin. Four days later the suit in Chancery was commenced, the plaintiff alleging that he had spent large sums in the last year on improving and manuring the farm, etc., etc., and that Siderfin had promised never to turn him out. The latter made answer on the 14th July denying that he had ever made any improvements or spent five shillings on the farm, which was in a very much worse state than when he took it, and concludes by alleging that "the complainant or his family have broken, burnt or otherwise destroyed the gates, floors, and timbers of the said house to the value of £10 and more." No doubt firewood was scarce on Exmoor.

Whether John Dennicombe got the relief he sought or ended his days in Ilchester Gaol, we know not.

The Marquis of Ormond's lease of January 1661, came to an end on the 21st July, 1719, but this made no practical difference, as Siderfin held Lord Arundell's revisionary lease of December, 1678, which then began to run. Strictly speaking, the term which he had bought from Mrs. Boevey expired a month earlier, as the last month of the thirty-one years had been reserved by the Marquis when he transferred the lease to James Boevey in 1661, but this fact had no doubt been forgotten.

Robert Siderfin died in July, 1720, and was buried at Luxborough on the 14th of that month. He had been married four times; Ann, daughter of Sir John Wittewrong of Rothamstead in Hertford, whose death on May 5th, 1708, is recorded by an inscription on the floor of Luxborough Church, being referred to in his will as his third wife, while he left a widow, Elizabeth by name. One of the two earlier wives was "Katherine Siderfin alias Graves," administration of whose estate was granted to him in November, 1686. By one of the earlier marriages he had two sons, Walter and Robert, but neither is referred to in his will, by which he left all his lands in Somerset and Devon, subject to a charge for the payment of his debts, to his wife Elizabeth, and made her residuary legatee and sole executrix.

The will is dated 14th June, 1715. Like his elder brother Thomas, Robert Siderfin died in debt, and the widow having renounced probate of his will, administration was granted to Robert Darch as principal creditor on the 22nd June, 1721.

This Robert Darch, a Presbyterian minister at Bishop's Hull, near Taunton, was the second of four brothers, nephews of Robert Siderfin. His eldest brother, Thomas, lived and owned land in Luxborough, where he died in August, 1734. There is an inscription on the floor of Luxborough Church recording his death and that of his widow, Sarah, who is described as "a father to the poor and eminent for the practice of virtue and true religion." Two other brothers, James and Philip, the latter of whom seems to have been also a Presbyterian minister, are referred to as 'my nephews' in Siderfin's will and given legacies of £100 each. The Darch family had long been resident in Luxborough; in 1598 a James Darch of Luxborough, was joint plaintiff in a lawsuit concerning Exmoor with Thomas Webber, the deputy forester.

After Siderfin's death his interest in Exmoor Forest, probably by some arrangement among the creditors, became divided between two persons, the principal of whom was this Robert Darch. In the rental of the crown lands compiled in 1734 the tenants of Exmoor Forest are named as "Robert Darch and another" and from the fact that Darch purchased the tithes from the Cressets in 1723 we may infer with tolerable certainty that he was then in possession of an interest in the Forest itself. 'Another' was presumably the John Hill who 'passed and allowed' before two witnesses, the accounts of the deputy forester, which were furnished to Darch's widow and son in 1737 and 1743 respectively. Very likely he was a grandson of Boevey's deputy forester who lived at Newland in Withpool in 1678. A third John Hill appears as owner of Newland and Higher Lanacre in 1819. From the terms of Darch's will, combined with the absence from these accounts of any rent for Simonsbath Farm, it seems that this belonged solely to Darch, and that Hill had a half share in the forest only, exclusive of the farm. However this may have been, Darch had the predominant interest as sole owner of the tithes besides his share of the forest.

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Darch died on the 31st January, 1737. Among the pamphlets enumerated in Mr. E. Green's Bibliotheca Somersensis appear the following: "Grove, Henry .... A funeral sermon occasioned by the death of the late reverend Mr. Robert Darch, of Hill Bishops, in the County of Somerset, who departed this life Jan. 31st, 1737, aetat 65." From another entry in the same work we gather that at the funeral of Robert Siderfin's third wife, Darch himself had entertained the mourners with a discourse considered worthy of printing: "Darch, Robert (Hill-bishops). A sermon preach'd at the funeral of Mrs. Anne, the wife of Robert Siderfin, Esq., one of her Majesties justices of the peace for the County of Somerset, at Timberscombe, May 13th, 1708."

Appendix 7

The status and location of the Siderfin Family of Luxborough, Somerset as mentioned by James Sanders has been located to an Appendix as it is interesting but does not fit into the generational aspect of the early part of the book. Perhaps it is my being female, but I have little interest in family crests or arms. But feel duty bound to record the crest used thus far by the Thomas 4 (Robert 3, William 2, John 1) line (as far as I can determine although do make query comments in the text) so one is left to assume that this line created it and this line did appear to daughter out.

There is no mention of any of this family bearing arms, yet Collinson, in History of Somerset<sup>2878</sup>, mentions “Arms, three cups,” – Siderfin<sup>2879</sup>

There is an inscription on one of the floor pieces “Here lyeth the body of Ann the wife of Robert Siderfin, of Croydon, esq; and daughter of Sir John Wittewronge, of Rothamsted in the county of Hertford, bart. Who died May 5, 1708. Arms: three cups, Siderfin; impaling Bently of fix, on a chief a bar indented, Wittewronge.”<sup>2880</sup>

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

It seemed to be important to the story that James Sanders was writing perhaps to emphasize that the Siderfin family did eventually rise to the status of gentlemen and did bear arms so I have left it with the rest of the text with which it was associated.

Link to the original book of James Sanders held by Internet Archives. Although I have included quite a bit of James Sanders book in this revision there are interesting historical comments and information which he included which did not actually involve the Siderfin Family so I have not always included every page of his book in this revision<sup>2881</sup>:

The Siderfin Family of West Somerset

Appendix 8

Name of Testator: Grace Escott, Dunster, Somerset, widow

Held by: North Devon Record Office

Reference: 3792 M/F2

Date 6 Aug 1784, proved Taunton Archdeaconry Court 4 Sep 1784

Transcription: unknown, sent to me by Mark Siderfin (I have not corrected the obvious mis-transcriptions and do not know who did the transcription; from memory I think that Mark acquired the document from the Devon Record Office and had it transcribed. I did check to see if he sent the images of the original will but have not located it to date.)

The will itself is interesting as it does re-enforce the ancestry of James Sanders back to the Robert 6 line (Robert Siderfin married to Grace Kent).
